Theres No Place Like Home English Edition:

There's No Place Like Home Jean Studebaker,2011-06-29 In the 1950 s and 60 s Kansas farm life meant milking cows gathering eggs and butchering hogs and steers It meant raising a garden preparing meals from scratch sewing clothes and churning butter It meant living close to the earth It was a special time when children could wander the pastures and fields without fear and come home dirty after a day of hard play and harder work Farmers produced much of what they needed to live and were almost completely self sufficient Farm life was basic simple and sweet and family was the most important thing There s No Place Like Home is the story of a Kansas farm family It is the unique story of life in a different time and place before technology and automation changed how things are done on the farm It was a time when a farm life was a family project and everyone contributed A collection of anecdotes and oral histories this story includes the tales of a childhood on a Kansas farm in the mid 20th century and the joys and regrets for generations of such a life It is the story of a life on the Kansas prairie a celebration of the land and people of Kansas and a re telling of the histories of one family recounted around the kitchen table It tells of the struggles hopes and disappointments of life in a simpler time and place There's No Place Like Home United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Aging,1988 There's No Place Like Home Anna Lou Dehavenon,1999-01-30 This collection of essays addresses the lack of shelter one of the most basic elements of human adaptation now experienced by many Americans Based on the presupposition that shelter is a basic human right in the world s richest most advanced nation the authors of these essays look more closely than others have yet done at the causes of the current low income housing crisis and homelessness Ten anthropologists and a mental health worker use participant observation and other ethnographic methods to observe and document the experiential and geographic diversity of U S homelessness Each chapter focuses on a specific geographic area urban suburban or rural and a specific category of homeless people families with children solitary adults or both Based on their findings the authors also present policy recommendations to ameliorate the housing shortage and prevent homelessness at local state and federal levels There's No Place Like Home...for sex education Mary Gossart,2015-02-21 A friendly and practical guide for having conversations about sex with confidence comfort and humor There's No Place Like Home at Christmas Jonathan Irwin,2010-11 This is a collection of new Christmas stories written by well known Irish personalities including Maeve Binchy Niall Quinn Cathy Kelly Eddie Hobbs Patrick Hickey and Judi Curtin Describing the true meaning of Christmas this collection of nearly 30 stories is varied and colourful and will warm the very cockles of your heart There's No Place Like Home: Place and Care in an Ageing Society Christine Milligan,2016-02-17 Against a background of debate around global ageing and what this means in terms of the future care need of older people this book addresses key concerns about the nature and site of care and care giving Following a critical review of research into who cares where and how it uses geographical perspectives to present a comprehensive analysis of how the intersection of informal care giving within domestic community and residential care homes can create complex landscapes and organizational spatialities of care Drawing on contemporary case studies largely but not exclusively from the UK the book reviews and develops a theoretical basis for a geographical analysis of the issue of care By relating these theoretical concepts to empirical data and case studies it illustrates how formal and informal care giver responses to the changing landscape of care can act to facilitate or constrain the development of inclusionary models of care
