he is surrounded by women every day They just don't belong to him and honestly he is okay with that After continuously being turned down looked over and frowned upon Killian has chosen to block off the avenue to his heart until the right woman can find him He is done looking for love so if a female wants to pursue anything serious they would have to approach him first Had he known the beautiful young vibrant East would be that person he would have run for the hills Just as crazy just as mean and just as guarded as Killian East quickly becomes the challenge he has been avoiding However unlike Killian East is ready for love One bad relationship after the next her heart should be too damaged to mend but not for Killian A self-made broken-hearted guru Killian is the man for the job A small skill he has acquired after stitching the pieces of his own heart back together too many times before Though East is ready for happiness and open to loving Killian she is no easy target With a horrible attitude and a terribly rude mouth Killian isn't the easiest person to get along with unless you're a self-assured spitfire named East Take a chance and fall in love with another one of A Zayler's page-turning romances Killian and East are a love story for the ages
