Dialogue Writing for Dubbing Giselle Spiteri Miggiani, 2019-03-01 This book analyses an important phase in the interlingual dubbing process of audiovisual productions the elaboration of target language scripts for the recording studios Written by a practitioner in the industry who is also an academic and trainer it provides practical know how and guidelines while adopting a scholarly structural and methodical approach Supported by an exemplified analytical and theoretical framework it is non language specific and discusses strategies and tricks of the trade Divided into three parts the book provides a descriptive practical and analytical approach to dubbing and dialogue writing The author analyses scripts drawn from her own professional practice including initial drafts that illustrate the various transformations of a text throughout the rewriting process She also offers a backstage perspective from first hand experience in recording sessions that enabled knowledge of text manipulation studio jargon and the dubbing post production process This publication will provide a valuable resource for novice dubbing translators and dialogue writers while offering practitioner insights to scholars and researchers in the field of Audiovisual Translation Film and Media Studies

Tudor school-boy life: the dialogues of Juan Luis Vives Juan Luis Vives, 2019-12-11 In Tudor School Boy Life The Dialogues of Juan Luis Vives the esteemed Renaissance humanist Juan Luis Vives presents a fascinating exploration of the educational practices and moral philosophies of Tudor England Through a series of dialogues Vives artfully examines the intellectual and social dimensions of youthful education reflecting the broader humanist movement that emphasized learning as a vehicle for personal and societal betterment His literary style marked by clarity and wit invites readers into the bustling life of Tudor schools uncovering the relationship between pedagogy and character development while mingling literary tradition with the newly emerging ideas of a more empirical approach to education Juan Luis Vives a Spanish scholar deeply influenced by both classical and contemporary thinkers crafted this work during a time of significant educational reform His experiences as a student and educator shaped his critical perspective on the prevailing educational orthodoxies Vives was entrenched in humanist circles and sought not only to advocate for intellectual improvement but also to forge a more moral and socially responsible citizenry through education reflecting his own values as a thinker committed to the ideals of the Renaissance This book is a compelling read for educators historians and anyone interested in the roots of modern education Vives dialogues not only serve as a window into Tudor educational practices but also resonate with contemporary discussions about the values and methods of teaching Readers will find in this text a rich landscape of ideas that are as relevant today as they were in the sixteenth century

Media and Translation Dror Abend-David, 2014-07-31 Over the last decade there has been a dramatic increase in publications on media and translation In fact there are those who believe that so much has been published in this field that any further publications are superfluous But if one views media and translation as anything ranging from film and television drama to news casting commercials video games web pages and electronic street signs it would seem that research in media and translation has barely scratched the surface The research in this field is shared largely by scholars in communication and translation studies often without knowledge of each other or access to their respective methods of scholarship This collection will rectify this lack of communication by bringing such scholars together and creating a context for a theoretical discussion of the entire emerging field of Media and Translation with a preference for theoretical work rather than case studies on translation and communications of various forms and through various media Prophetic Dialogue: Reflections on Christian Mission Today Stephen B. Bevans and Roger P. Schroeder, 2011 In this volume Fathers Bevans and Schroeder address a primary challenge faced by Christians missionaries today How can they bring the Christian tradition to interact respectfully and effectively with members of other cultures and traditions from around the globe and still be prophetic Publisher website

The Continuing Dialogue Brian Leslie Bishop, 2017-07-20 The I AM statements exclusive to the Fourth Gospel are seen as the attempt of the author s of that Gospel to present the nature and purpose of the earthly life of Jesus by engaging the imaginative faculty of the reader Succeeding generations of artists are considered as undertaking a similar task by engaging in an imaginative dialogue with the text There are five narratives that are peculiar to the Fourth Gospel The Wedding at Cana the Woman of Samaria the Woman Taken in Adultery the Raising of Lazarus and the Washing of Feet Five paintings based upon each narrative are considered in context These are taken from the early fourteenth century Duccio and Giotto to the twentieth and twenty first centuries Max Beckmann and the contemporary Icon writer Constantina Wood A sense of the loss experienced by the western church under the sanctions of the Protestant Reformation against visual imagery is conveyed This leads to a suggestion that a reassertion of the role of the aesthetics of Christian worship might be a unifying factor for a generation jaded by the pedantry that divides the Christian Church Text, Speech and Dialogue Václav Matoušek, Pavel Mautner, Tomáš Pavelka, 2005-08-25 TheInternationalConferenceTSD 2005 the8theventin theseriesonText Speech and Dialogue which originated in 1998 presented state of the art technology and recent achievements in the eld of natural language processing It declared its intent to be an interdisciplinary forum intertwining research in speech and language processing with its applications in everyday practice We feel that the mixture of different approaches and applications offered a great opportunity to get acquainted with the current act ities in all aspects of language communication and to witness the amazing vitality of researchers from developing countries too The nancial support of the ISCA Inter tional Speech Communication Association enabled the wide attendance of researchers from all active regions of the world Thisyear sconferencewaspartiallyorientedtowardsmulti modalhuman computer interaction HCI which can be seen as the most attractive topic of HCI at the present time In this way we are involved in a rich complex of communicative activity facial expressions hand gestures direction of gaze to name but the most obvious ones The interpretationof each user utterancedependson the context prosody facial expressions e g brows raised brows and gaze both raised and gestures Hearers have to adapt to the speaker e g maintainingthe theme of the conversation smiling etc Research into the interaction

Dialogues and Debates from Late Antiquity to Late Byzantium Averil Cameron, Niels Gaul, 2017-01-20 Dialogues and Debates from Late Antiquity to Late Byzantium offers the first overall discussion of the literary and philosophical dialogue tradition in Greek from imperial Rome to the end of the Byzantine empire and beyond Sixteen case studies combine theoretical approaches with in depth analysis and include comparisons with the neighbouring Syriac Georgian Armenian and Latin traditions Following an introduction and a discussion of Plutarch as a writer of dialogues other chapters consider the Erotophous a philosophical dialogue in Syriac John Chrysostom's On Priesthood issues of literariness and complexity in the Greek Adversus Iudaeos dialogues the Trophies of Damascus Maximus Confessor's Liber Asceticus and the middle Byzantine apocryphal revelation dialogues The volume demonstrates a new frequency in middle and late Byzantium of rhetorical theological and literary dialogues concomitant with the increasing rhetoricisation of Byzantine literature and argues for a move towards new and exciting experiments Individual chapters examine the Platonising and anti Latin dialogues written in the context of Anselm of Havelberg's visits to Constantinople the theological dialogue by Soterichos Panteugenos the dialogues of Niketas of Maroneia and the literary dialogues by Theodore Prodromos all from the twelfth century The final chapters explore dialogues from the empire's Georgian periphery and discuss late Byzantine philosophical satirical and verse dialogues by Nikephoros Gregoras Manuel II Palaiologos and George Scholarios with special attention to issues of form dramatisation and performance Culture and Dialogue Vol.3, No. 2 (2013) Issue on "Identity and Dialogue" Gerald Cipriani, 2014-05-02 Volume 3 Number 2 of Culture and Dialogue focuses on the theme of identity and dialogue All the essays gathered in this volume address issues of identity with concrete examples and from different perspectives be they art philosophy politics religion gender or ethnic studies All essays describe and question the relational element at work in identity formation within different cultural contexts such as Japan America Corsica Mongolia Norway Australia Italy and Ireland Hiroshi Yoshioka offers a topical critique of what lays behind the fashionable self portrait of Japanese cultural identity as Cool Japan in all its uniqueness Sandra Wawrytko addresses the sensitive issue of gun culture in American identity by resorting to Mahayana Buddhist conceptions of failed interconnectedness Dominique Verdoni discusses cultural identity formation with particular reference to the Corsican language and literature against the background of more dominant or regulating cultures Angelika Bock shows how art practice can disclose the processes involved in any attempts to represent otherness including when different groups such as Mongolian herders Sami singers and Australian Aboriginal hunters use other cultural codes and perspectives Francesca Pierini critically reflects upon the culturally biased ways in which Anglo American literature has traditionally portrayed Italian culture an orientalised imagined identity The selection of essays closes with Hannah Hale s study on a very specific aspect of gender identity formation how eating and drinking habits shape the development of masculinities within a community of students All essays in one way or another disclose how identity formation is conditioned by or emerges from relationships between self and otherness inside and outside or minor and dominant cultures As paradoxical as it may seem the more we relate to each other the more identity becomes an issue
