Dilip Jeste has led the search for the biological and cognitive roots of wisdom. What's emerged from his work is that wisdom is a very real and deeply multilayered set of traits. Across many cultures and centuries he's found that wise people are compassionate and empathetic, aware of their gifts and blind spots, open minded, resolute and calm amid uncertainty, altruistic decision makers who learn from their experiences, able to see from many perspectives and altitudes and often blessed with a sense of adventure and humor. The modern rise in suicides, opioid abuse, loneliness and internet addiction is damaging people's health and destroying the social fabric. Dr. Jeste reflects, "But we all have the ability to nurture and grow every facet of wisdom to face these challenges and others more effectively. If you seek to be a wiser person with your family at work and in your community, this book will show you how." with the researcher who's launched and advanced this exciting new path to our highest human potential.

Thirteen Moons Robert Paul Johnson, 2000. Robert Johnson's Thirteen Moons is an engaging and humorous chronicle of a year the author spent living in a tipi in the rugged wilderness of the Sierra Nevada Mountains in Northern California from May 1984 through May 1985. Styled chronologically like a journal, his narrative account spiced with levity and an easy going self deprecating manner is filled with high adventure, philosophical musing, encounters with eccentric goldminers, marijuana growers, a dog named Bob, obsessed fishermen, an FBI hippie and an extremely large rattlesnake, as well as vivid descriptions of the natural history of the region. Like Kerouac's Dharma Bums, Abbey's Desert Solitaire and Thoreau's Walden, Johnson's odyssey combines a love for nature and solitude with a commitment to understanding his place in the world. I removed the last of my possessions: my snowshoes, mask and snorkel, my pancake griddle and vegetable seeds, my gold pan and bow saw and books on Zen and Plato, my manual typewriter and fishing pole and stuffed them into my bulging backpack. Not only would it be my first attempt at dragging my tipi poles down the three miles of arduous switch backing trail, but it would be my official move in date. Day One of my proposed year in the wilderness. A poignant and spiritual quest by a young man testing himself in the wilderness, putting his faith in providence and managing the revelations of self knowledge and survival with down to earth pluck and skill.
