Victor Hugo

The Man Who Laughs:

The Man Who Laughs Gary Pulliam, 2008-06-01 Gary Pulliam was born in Birmingham Alabama in 1943 He spent most of his adult life in sales and marketing Yet with that background he always reasoned that if and when he grew up he would become a writer Sixty years later he fulfilled that dream This modern adaptation of THE MAN WHO LAUGHS and its companion screenplay fulfill his lifelong dream of putting a good story in print These are his first published writings they will not be his last With a thirst for knowledge in religion history and the literary arts he majored in these subjects when he attended the University of Memphis Reading and research has been his passion in life As a self educated film and music historian he is now convinced that in the last century these segments of pop culture have been as influential as religion or politics There are many who agree One of his lifelong concerns has been the deterioration of family and culture An analytic study of this has led him to conclude many of the reasons why this is so He hopes his life experiences and writing will touch others in some meaningful way He currently lives in Memphis Tennessee with his wife Carolyn They remain close to all five of their children as well as their seven grandchildren
