South Africa's and Brazil's social policy architectures that have been shaped by transhistorical trajectories of hierarchical citizenships Phiri provides two interventions to scholarship one on the epistemic question and the second on the social question by offering a critique of a racialised neoliberal global political economy that permeates the two countries' social policies In this volume Phiri answers the following questions First can social policy resolve the residuals and contradictions of transhistorical inequalities that have become systemic features of these aspirant democracies that aim to forge a new social contract under the epoch of a hierarchical racialised neoliberal capitalism Second cognisant that both South Africa's and Brazil's socio-political formations are enmeshed in histories of imperial violence and a hierarchical racialised global political economy carved through the Trans-Atlantic slavery what paradigmatic and theoretical tools can be deployed to think about social policy as reparations Third cognisant of South Africa's and Brazil's oppressed black majorities which institutions will create conducive conditions for the flourishing and political aesthetics for those racialised as black The author's contribution to this oeuvre is first to define social policy as reparations through a process of worldmaking Whose History Counts June Bam, Lungisile Ntsebeza, Allan Zinn, 2018-11-29 Originally planned as a fact-based book on the pre-colonial history of the Eastern Cape in the true tradition of history this ground-breaking book focuses on epistemological and foundational questions about the writing of history and whose history counts Whose History Counts challenges the very concept of the pre-colonial and explores methodologies on researching and writing history Mélanges Labuschagne, C.J Casper Jeremiah Labuschagne, Florentino García Martínez, 1969-12-02 This collection of studies in Deuteronomy reveals different methodological approaches to the biblical book includes the first edition of some Deuteronomy manuscripts from Qumran Masada and Nahal Hever illustrates different aspects of the MT the LXX and the Qumran text of Deuteronomy deals with Deuteronomic elements in other biblical books and treats the reception history of Deuteronomy in the Jewish and Christian world both in Antiquity and in recent times
