American Political Ideologies and Beliefs

Core American Values		Political Attitudes and Socialization
Individualism Each person is responsible for herself, free to do what she chooses to do		Political socialization The process of a person obtaining their political ideology; family/parents, peers, education, media, religion all sources
Equality of opportunity Each person has an opportunity to succeed, however equality of outcome is not guaranteed		Globalization U.S. political culture has both influenced and been influenced by the values of other countries
Free enterprise An economic system based mostly on markets and freedom of people to choose what to buy and sell		Generational effects Different voting patterns and political beliefs for people in different generations
Rule of law No person is above the law		Lifecycle effects People focus on different issues at different points in life
Limited government Governmental power is limited by the Constitution		Major political events That occur especially during young adulthood influence political attitudes and beliefs
Public Opinion Polling
Types of polls		Elements of a scientific poll
Opinion poll Poll to measure public opinion on a particular issue		Random sample All persons in the population have an equal chance being selected
Benchmark poll Used to find out where a candidate stands before any campaigning, learn strengths, weaknesses, what issues to focus on		Stratified sample Population is divided into subgroups and weighted based on population demographics
Tracking poll A continuous poll to chart changes in opinion over time		Sampling error A polling error arising from using only a sample of a population; +/- 3% is an acceptable margin of error
Entrance/exit poll Taken as people enter/exit polling places on election day; used to predict election outcome, to gain insight into voter behavior, and to analyze how different demographic groups voted		Wording of question Must be neutral/unbiased, can't lead respondents towards a certain answer
		Type and format of question Open/ended, multiple choice, answer choices, etc., can affect the poll results
American Political Ideologies
	Conservative	Liberal	Libertarian
Marketplace	Less economic regulation	More economic regulation	Little or no regulation beyond protection of property rights
