The Intrareligious Dialogue:

The Intrareligious Dialogue Raimundo Panikkar, Raimon Panikkar, 1999 An expanded and updated edition of a classic by one of the giants in this field Faith and belief in a multireligious experience are discussed with emphasis on understanding one's own religion and tradition before attempting to understand someone else's

Intrareligious Dialogue Raimundo Panikkar, 1978 A discussion of faith and belief in a multireligious experience Suggestions on how to begin the dialogue

The Intrareligious Dialogue Raimon Panikkar, 1978 Dialogue with the Other David Tracy, 1990 Dialogue with the Other expresses David Tracy's ongoing interest in the other and The Other His reflections enter into dialogue with figures as diverse as Meister Eckhart and William James and traditions as different as those of Buddhism Christianity and Judaism David Tracy is Distinguished Service Professor at the University of Chicago He is Professor of Theology at the Chicago Divinity School and Professor in the Committee on the Analysis of Ideas and Methods Among his better known are Blessed Rage for Order 1975 The Analogical Imagination 1981 and Plurality and Ambiguity 1987 Pathways for Inter-Religious Dialogue in the Twenty-First Century Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard Mannion, Peter C. Phan, 2016-01-26 Without question inter religious relations are crucial in the contemporary age While most dialogue works on past and contemporary matters this volume takes on the relations among the Abrahamic religions and looks forward toward the possibility of real and lasting dialogue The book centers upon inter faith issues It identifies problems that stand in the way of fostering healthy dialogues both within particular religious traditions and between faiths The volume's contributors strive for a realization of already existing common ground between religions They engagingly explore how inter religious dialogue can be re energized for a new century

The Wiley-Blackwell Companion to Inter-Religious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, 2020-06-08 This comprehensive volume brings together a distinguished editorial team including some of the field's pioneers to explore the aims practice and historical context of interfaith collaboration Explores in full the background history objectives and discourse between the leaders and practitioners of the world's major religions Examines relations between religions from around the world moving well beyond the common focus on Christianity to also cover over 12 major religions Features a wealth of case studies on contemporary interreligious dialogue Charts a long term shift away from a competitive rivalry between belief systems and a change in focus towards the more respectful cooperative approach reflected in institutions such as the World Council of Churches Includes up to date commentary on the growing dialogue of recent years written by some of the leading figures working in the field of interfaith discourse

Women and Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, Jillian Maxey, 2013-09-26 Though women have been objects more often than subjects of interreligious dialogue they have nevertheless contributed in significant ways to the dialogue just as the dialogue has also contributed to their own self understanding This volume the fifth in the Interreligious Dialogue Series brings together historical critical and constructive approaches to the role of women in the dialogue between religions These approaches deal with concrete examples of women

s involvement in dialogue critical reflections on the representation of women in dialogue and the important question of what women might bring to the dialogue Together they open up new avenues for reflection on the nature and purpose of interreligious dialogue

Controversies in Interreligious Dialogue and the Theology of Religions Paul Hedges,2010 This latest volume in the Controversies in Contextual Theology series provides an introduction to the current state of the field for those new to interreligious dialogue and the theology of religions as well as providing insights and new concepts that will be of interest to specialists In particular the current deadlock between pluralist and particularist approaches is re imagined and a strong argument for radical openness to the religious Other is advanced based upon the resources of the Christian heritage The book draws inspiration from many sources including intercultural theology feminist theologies of religions comparative theology postcolonial identity theory scholarly debates on the nature of religion and biblical concepts of hospitality to outline its new approach It concludes that we must seek mutual fulfillment with religious Others while maintaining Christian integrity It also addresses the problems this involves when seeking ethical partnership across religious boundaries No easy answers are given however a vision for radical openness based on Jesus example the Christian heritage and contemporary scholarship is endorsed

Particularism and Universalism in the Book of Isaiah Se-Hoon Jang,2005 This study offers a critical assessment of the two contested issues religious pluralism and iconoclasm from a Korean perspective by looking at a number of Isaiah s central themes which can be identified as particularistic and universalistic It also seeks to elucidate the contemporary implications of Isaiah s particularistic and universalistic themes for a pluralistic world especially for Korean religious communities which have been overwhelmed by a fiery debate about these issues

Evaluating Interreligious Peacebuilding and Dialogue Mohammed Abu-Nimer, Renáta Katalin Nelson,2021-09-20 In the emerging fields of religious and interreligious peacebuilding the question of monitoring and evaluation is a challenging yet necessary process The need to develop comprehensive yet fitting evaluation models for religious and interreligious peacebuilding is not only important for donor interests but also critical as a means of documenting and learning for peacebuilders themselves Theories and best practices in monitoring and evaluation have become prevalent in many fields yet the amount of literature on evaluating intercultural and especially religious and interreligious projects remains scant in comparison This volume offers a unique contribution that not only looks at several of the challenges and implications faced by religious and interreligious peacebuilders but also provides concrete examples of new models and tools for monitoring and evaluating religious and interreligious peacebuilding projects In doing so this volume serves as a tool and point of reference for individuals and organizations developing and implementing interreligious dialogue and peacebuilding projects

At the Feet of Abraham Levi UC Nkwocha,2020-11-30 This book advances an Abrahamic asymmetric mutual substitutive model of hospitality as a practical approach to establish peaceful coexistence between Muslims and Christians The merits include its helpful survey of the four models of interfaith dialogue and its clear exposition of the dialogue of life its constructive use of the philosophy of Levinas particularly in supporting its vision of asymmetrical moral responsibility among Muslim and Christians and its familiarity with an extensive philosophical literature on alterity gift exchange and responsibility The research also demonstrates strong command of the relevant Christian and Muslim scriptures and Catholic teaching on interfaith relations in addition to a wide range of background material on African Ubuntu spirit visible in Nigerian sociocultural and religious interdependent relations Through a consistent engagement of these philosophical ethical and cultural dimensions the Abrahamic theology of hospitality is ingeniously crafted to fill the age old gap mutual inability to deal with religious otherness At once the book provokes further scholarship inquiries on and around the identified concerns Its commonness and concreteness with the proposed respect for each other s faith commitment further underscores its quality

Catholics in Interreligious Dialogue Anthony O'Mahony, Peter Bowe, 2006 This volume brings together a wide ranging and engaging series of studies that witness to the depth of theological reflection that the contemporary Christian monastic and scholarly community are engaged in as the religious traditions seek to understand and relate to each other in a global context Catholic

The Philosophical Basis of Inter-religious Dialogue Mirosław Patalon, 2008-12-18 In the present epoch of tensions between civilizations challenges being brought by globalization processes and the necessity of the coexistence of various cultures and traditions the subject of inter religious dialogue seems to be particularly significant Can religions remain isolated islands Are their claims of being the only source of theological truth justified Or should it rather be understood as an effect of interaction between different points of view and common effort of looking for the answers to the questions about God and his relations to the world What is the role of dialogue Is it only a politically correct element or maybe something more essential the basis of reasonable existence and development of religion Should the direction traced by 20th century s partisans of ecumenical movements be widened in order to embrace also non Christian religions What is the orthodoxy and where are its boundaries The process philosophy creates a convenient and favorable atmosphere for this kind of considerations The articles of this selection represent different points of view of the discussed topic The book is addressed to all who deal with the inter religious dialogue both clergy and laymen as well as scholars and students interested in the subject

The Faiths of Others Thomas Albert Howard, 2021-01-01 The first intellectual history of interreligious dialogue a relatively new and significant dimension of human religiosity In recent decades organizations committed to interreligious or interfaith dialogue have proliferated both in the Western and non Western worlds Why How so And what exactly is interreligious dialogue These are the touchstone questions of this book the first major history of interreligious dialogue in the modern age Thomas Albert Howard narrates and analyzes several key turning points in the history of interfaith dialogue before examining in the conclusion the contemporary landscape While many have theorized about and practiced interreligious dialogue few have attended carefully to its past connecting its emergence and spread with broader developments in modern history Interreligious dialogue grasped in light of careful critical attention to its past holds promise for helping people of diverse faith backgrounds to foster cooperation and knowledge of one another while contributing insight into contemporary global religious pluralism

The Im-possibility of Interreligious Dialogue Catherine Cornille, 2008 In the face of competing religious claims in our shrinking world many turn to dialogue as a hopeful way of fostering understanding and reducing violence But why does actual dialogue so often fail This provocative study investigates the possibilities and limits of interreligious dialogue By showing the significant obstacles for dialogue within Christianity the book also proposes ways in which these obstacles may be overcome from within Major themes include Humility Conviction Interconnection Empathy and Generosity

Lessons from Pioneers of Interreligious Dialogue in Taiwan Paulin Batairwa Kubuya, 2025-08-11 Taiwan a land where faiths meet and mutual respect thrives exemplifies the beauty of religious pluralism woven into its very identity At the core of this harmonious coexistence lies the Catholic Church's profound commitment to interreligious dialogue a legacy shaped by the pioneering efforts of Cardinal Paul Yu Pin Archbishop Stanislas Luo Kuang and Father Albert Poulet Mathis Through their visionary leadership and innovative approaches these trailblazers not only enriched the Church's mission but also strengthened the social harmony that defines Taiwan's unique pluralism Their stories highlight a timeless truth dialogue is not merely theoretical but a dynamic process grounded in shared values and authentic relationships As global challenges demand unity across religious boundaries this book underscores the transformative power of dialogue It offers an inspiring example of how Taiwan's celebration of religious freedom and diversity can guide communities worldwide toward solidarity mutual understanding respect and hope
