

Amazing Grace

*Amazing grace! how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch, like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.*

*'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!*

*The Lord hath promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.*

*When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun.*

The Journey Home Willy Nywening, 2013-05-24 Our childhood is an intricate part of who we become as adults Everyone has difficulty despair and disappointment in their past How we choose to overcome these challenges determines the course of our lives Through it all love has the potential to heal old wounds In a time when children were meant to be seen and not heard young lives were not always honored Jamie and Martha a brother and sister who were tragically orphaned at a young age find themselves shuffled between family and friends Stripped of their voices and choices they endure heartbreaking circumstances that no child should ever experience Even though disappointment seems to be the only constant in their young lives they struggle courageously to find bits and pieces of happiness in a world that is often cruel and spiteful Through it all something pure and innocent within the children refuses to die On their journey they learn one of life's most important and powerful lessons the healing power of love makes life and living possible While love cannot change the past it is the key to redeeming an unwritten future For Martha and Jamie it is love that creates the true refuge that is home Survive - Alive
