Virginia Woolf Ralph Freedman, 1980-01-01 Hieroglyphic Modernisms Jesse Schotter, 2018-01-15 Explores the transformative reign of the Catholic King James VII and the revolution that brought about his fall Virginia Woolf and the Aesthetics of Vision Claudia Olk, 2014-08-19 The category of vision is significant for Modernist texts as well as for the unfolding discourse of Modernism itself Within the general Modernist fascination with the artistic and experimental possibilities of vision and perception this study looks at Virginia Woolf s novels and her critical writings and examines the relation between visibility and aesthetics An aesthetics of vision as this study argues becomes a productive principle of narrative The visual is not only pertinent to Woolf s processes of composition but her works create a kind of vision that is proper to the text itself a vision that reflects on the experience of seeing and renegotiates the relation between the reader and the text The study investigates key dimensions of aesthetic vision It addresses vision in the context of theories of aesthetic experience and identifies a semantics of seeing It analyses functions of symbolic materiality in the presentation of boundaries of perception modes of temporality and poetic potentialities In exploring the connections between vision and language it seeks to provide new perspectives for a reassessment of what occurs in Modernism s relation to vision The Lady of Shalott in the Victorian Novel Jennifer Gribble, 1983-12-01 Trespassing Boundaries K. Benzel, R. Hoberman, 2004-10-28 In Trespassing Boundaries ten contemporary Woolf scholars discuss a broad range of Woolf s short stories Despite being now easily available these stories have not yet received the attention they deserve Complex yet involving they deserve to be read not only for the light they shed on the novels but in their own right as major contributions to the short fiction as a genre This volume places Woolf's short stories in the context of modernist experimentalism then explores them as ambitious attempts to challenge generic boundaries undercutting traditional distinctions between short fiction and the novel between experimental and popular fiction between fiction and nonfiction Collectively the essays suggest that Woolf's contribution to the short story is as important as her contribution to the novel

Reading Virginia Woolf Julia Briggs, 2006-06-14 The pleasure and excitement of exploring Virginia Woolf's writings is at the heart of this book by a highly respected Woolf critic and biographer Julia Briggs reconsiders Woolf's work from some of her earliest fictional experiments to her late short story The Symbol and from the most to the least familiar of her novels from a series of highly imaginative and unexpected angles Individual essays analyse Woolf's neglected second novel Night and Day and investigate her links with other writers Byron Shakespeare her ambivalent attitudes to Englishness and to censorship her fascination with transitional places and moments with the flow of time and its relative nature her concern with visions and revision and with printing and the writing process as a whole We watch Woolf as she typesets an extraordinarily complex high modernist poem Hope Mirrlees's Paris and as she revises her novels so that their structures become formally and even numerologically significant A final essay examines the differences between Woolf's texts as they were first published in England and America and the further changes she occasionally made after publication changes that her editors have been slow to acknowledge Julia Briggs brings to these discussions an extensive knowledge of Woolf both as a scholar and as an editor She records her findings and observations in a lively graceful and approachable style that will entice readers to delve further and more meaningfully into Woolf's work

Temporalities of Modernism Carmen Borbély, Erika Mihálycsa, Petronia Petrar, 2023-03-22 Temporalities of Modernism gathers fourteen scholars whose contributions readdress the very tenets of modernism by approaching its multifaceted relationship with time in a series of fresh and original essays The contemporary energies behind the collection are rooted in the turbulence of the modernist age relativity irreversibility duration fragmentation contingency and the looming threat of the apocalyptic future The collection includes geographical areas often neglected by the habitual reduction of modernist studies to English speaking literary high modernism or to the concentration of famous figures in the traditional capital of modernism Paris Thus it offers detailed presentations of Italian pre WWI modernism Czech Dadaism or of Polish Romanian and Hungarian writers and artists The borders also open in terms of genres and mediums as the contributions are not limited to fiction but examine the multi faceted productions of modernist artists poetry theatre painting music cinema photography etc In addition the limits are temporally stretched out as some contributions focus on more recent writers such as Sylvia

Plath and their reactivation of modernist discoveries Modernism, Postmodernism, and the Short Story in English
