The Laughing Hangman Edward Marston, 2012-03-06 Jonas Applegarth is a brilliant but belligerent playwright When his play The Misfortunes of Marriage is performed by Lord Westfield's Men it causes an uproar All of Applegarth's enemies attack the company Nicholas Bracewell defends the playwright loyally but alas Applegarth is soon found hanged by the neck It is only the first of many mysteries that Nicholas has to solve Lord Westfield's Men are furious when they are satirized by a rival children's theater company at the Blackfriars playhouse A second attack by the killer laughing hangman throws the actors in further disarray Nicholas is under enormous pressure not least because he is trying to rekindle his romance with Anne Hendrik by helping her to fend off an aggressive suitor His beloved company is under threat as never before and he has to call on all of his resources to rescue them Marston's wit and vivid evocation of Elizabethan London's sights and smells provide a delightfully ribald backdrop for this clever series Publishers Weekly A delightfully dazzling period piece suffused with humor wit and atmospheric drama Booklist
