Isaiah: Isaiah 1-12 Hans Wildberger,1991 This excellent commentary is certainly the most exhaustive of works available on the chapters with which it deals I recommend it unreservedly to all serious students of the Old Testament John Bright Wildberger s commentary has turned out to be his Lebenswerk and it is itself a noble tribute to a scholar who is theologically sensitive aware of differing opinions and fair in dealing with them It is the best existing commentary on the book of Isaiah Roland E Murphy

The Land of Fertility I Maciej Wacławik,2016-02-08 In the south east Mediterranean region the so called Fertile Crescent the modern world began its development at the very beginning of human civilisation People living there were among the first in the world to domesticate plants and animals and many of the ideas and objects that are in common use today originated from that area The papers collected in this volume are based on papers presented at an international conference titled The Land of Fertility The South East Mediterranean from the Bronze Age to the Muslim Conquest which was focused on this very special region and the processes prevalent there after the end of the Stone Age

Lies of the Land Camille Serchuk,2024-12-17 Lies of the Land examines the often overlooked artistic roots of mapmaking practice in early modern France offering an original perspective on discourses of accuracy and their relationship to the pictorial origins of modern mapmaking Until the seventeenth century most mapmakers in France were painters Schooled in techniques of drawing and perspective and in the careful study of nature that we associate with early modernity they also learned the more expressive and imaginative Mannerist forms that dominated French painting in this period Their maps draw on conventions of both painting and mapmaking to create beautiful informative and persuasive images for a wide variety of contexts and purposes In this book Camille Serchuk explores the strategies these cartographers deployed to weave together accuracy ornament and artifice in maps at all scales Looking beyond the techniques of measurement and perspective Serchuk shows how painterly interventions framed and manipulated the appearance and reception of cartographic objects Lies of the Land is an important new assessment of the character and status of early modern cartography that challenges binary distinctions between art and science and between decorative and epistemic images It will appeal especially to art historians and historians of sixteenth century France as well as scholars of map history
