for some time in the Church of St Peter by the charitable invitemment of many virtuous people who lived there for devotion so it chanced that his nurse borrowed of a neighbour a sieve to cleanse wheat which being left carelessly upon the table was found broken in two pieces Therefore on her return finding it broke she began to weep bitterly because it was only lent her But the religious and pious boy Benedict seeing his nurse lament was moved with compassion and taking with him the two pieces of the broken sieve with tears he gave himself to prayer which no sooner ended but he found the sieve whole and found not any sign that it had been broken Then presently he restored the sieve which had been broken whole to his nurse to her exceeding comfort This matter was divulged unto all that lived thereabout and so much admired by all that the inhabitants of that place caused the sieve to be hanged up in the Church porch that not only those present but all posterity might know with how great gifts of grace Benedict had been endowed from the beginning of his conversion The sieve remained to be seen for many years after and hung over the Church door even until the times of the Longobards But Benedict more desirous to suffer afflictions than covetous of praise and rather willing to undergo labours for the honour of God than to be extolled with the favours of this world fled secretly from his nurse to a remote place in the desert called Subiaco distant about forty miles from Rome in which a fountain springing with cool and crystal waters extendeth itself at first into a broad lake and running farther with increase of waters becometh at the last a river The Life and Prayers of Saint Benedict Wyatt North,2013-08-25 St Benedict was not interested in fame power or legacy He was only interested in living the Christian life to the fullest and helping those around him to do the same The rest is history and the work of Providence St Benedict is regarded as the Father of the Benedictine Order of both religious men and women that follow his Rule a key principle of which is ora et labora pray and work Today many people wear holy medals of St Benedict invoking his intercession for protection against the powers of evil Not only consecrated religious but also many lay people find inspiration in his call to balance discipline and prayer Historically St Benedict helped bridge the early Church with the medieval period by standing on the shoulders of the fathers of the monastic tradition and bringing that tradition solidly into a new era The Life of Our Most Holy Father Saint Benedict St. Gregory St. Gregory the Great,2014-10-17 This is a biography written by the medieval pope Gregory the Great about St Benedict The Life and Times of St. Benedict Petrus Lechner,Peter Lechner,1900 The Life and Miracles of Saint Maurus Odo (of Glanfeuil, Abbot),2008 Glanfeuil was the proprietor of many outlying churches and farms but its preeminence flowed from its possession of the relics of Saint Maurus the first disciple of Saint Benedict and reputed founder of the abbey The foundation of the abbey s reputation and prosperity was the famous Life of Maurus composed at the end of the ninth century by the greatest of its abbots Odo of Glanfeuil The history of Odo s Life of Maurus is however anything but straightforward from the Historical Introduction of The Life of Maurus page 11
