The Magic Of Saida:

The Magic of Saida M.G. Vassanji, 2013-03-05 Giller Prize winner M G Vassanji gives us a powerfully emotional novel of love and loss of an African Indian man who returns to the town of his birth in search of the girl he once loved and the sense of self that has always eluded him Kamal Punja is a physician who has lived in Canada for the past forty years but whom we first meet in a Tanzanian hospital He is delirious and says he has been poisoned with hallucinogens But when Kamal finds a curious and sympathetic ear in a local publisher his ravings begin to reveal a tale of extraordinary pathos complexity and mystery Raised by his African mother deserted when he was four by his Indian father married to a woman of Indian heritage and the father of two wholly Westernized children Kamal had reached a stage of both undreamed of material success and disintegrating personal ties Then suddenly he stepped off the treadmill allowed an old regret to awaken and set off to find the girl he had known as a child to finally keep his promise to her that he would return The girl was Saida granddaughter of a great beloved Swahili poet Kamal and Saida were constant companions he teaching her English and arithmetic she teaching him Arabic script and Swahili poetry and in his child's mind she was his future wife Until when he was eleven his mother sent him to the capital Dar es Salaam to live with his father's relatives to become an Indian and thus secure his future Now Kamal is journeying back to the village he left into the maze of his long unresolved mixed race identity and the nightmarish legacy of his broken promise to Saida At once dramatic searching and intelligent The Magic of Saida moves deftly between the past and present painting both an intimate picture of passion and betrayal and a broad canvas of political promise and failure in contemporary Africa It is a timeless story and a story very much of our own time Entanglements: Envisioning World Literature from the Global South Andrea Scheurer, Maren Schulze-Engler, Frank Wegner, Jarula M. I. Gremels, 2022-05-17

Entanglements Envisioning World Literature from the Global South scrutinizes current debates to bring historical and contemporary South South entanglements to the fore and to develop a new understanding of world literature in a multipolar world of globalized modernity The volume challenges established ideas of world literature by rethinking the concept along the notion of entanglements as a field of variously criss crossing relations of literary activity beyond the confines of literary canons cultural containers or national borders The collection presents individual case studies from a variety of language traditions that focus on particular literary relationships and practices across Africa the Americas Asia and Europe as well as new fictional poetical and theoretical conceptions of world literature in order to broaden our understanding of the multilateral entanglements within a widening communicative network that shape our globalized world And Home Was

Kariakoo M.G. Vassanji, 2016-01-26 From M G Vassanji two time Scotiabank Giller Prize winner and a Governor General's Literary Award winner for Non fiction comes a poignant love letter to his birthplace and homeland East Africa a powerful and surprising portrait that only an insider could write Part travelogue part memoir and part history rarely told here is a powerful and timely portrait of a constantly evolving land From a description of Zanzibar and its evolution to a visit to a slave market town at Lake Tanganyika from an encounter with a witchdoctor in an old coastal village to memories of his own childhood in the streets of Dar es Salaam and the suburbs of Nairobi Vassanji combines brilliant prose thoughtful and candid observation and a lifetime of revisiting and reassessing the continent that molded him and as we discover when we follow the journeys that became this book shapes him still

Nowhere, Exactly M.G. Vassanji, 2024-03-26 SHORTLISTED FOR THE WRITERS TRUST BALSILLIE PRIZE FOR PUBLIC POLICY From one of Canada's most celebrated writers two time Giller Prize winner M G Vassanji comes a thoughtful meditation on what it means to belong in the world Home is never a single place entirely and unequivocally It is contingent The abstract nowhere then is the true home M G Vassanji has been exploring the immigrant experience for over three decades drawing deeply on his own transnational upbringing and intimate understanding of the unique challenges and perspectives born from leaving one's home to resettle in a new land The question of identity of how to configure and see oneself within this new land is one such challenge faced But Vassanji suggests that a more fundamental and slippery endeavour than establishing one's identity is how if ever we can establish a sense of belonging Can we ever truly belong in this new home Did we ever truly belong in the home we left Where exactly do we belong For many the answer is nowhere exactly Combining brilliant prose thoughtful candid observation and a lifetime of exploring how we as individuals are shaped by the places and communities in which we live and the history that haunts them Nowhere Exactly examines with exquisite sensitivity the space between identity and belonging the immigrant experience of both loss and gain and the weight of memory and nostalgia guilt and hope felt by so many of those who leave their homes in search of new ones

Indians in Kenya Sana Aiyar, 2015-04-06 Working as merchants skilled tradesmen clerks lawyers and journalists Indians formed the economic and administrative middle class in colonial Kenya In general they were wealthier than Africans but were denied the political and economic privileges that Europeans enjoyed Moreover despite their relative prosperity Indians were precariously positioned in Kenya Africans usually viewed them as outsiders and Europeans largely considered them subservient Indians demanded recognition on their own terms Indians in Kenya chronicles the competing often contradictory strategies by which the South Asian diaspora sought a political voice in Kenya from the beginning of colonial rule in the late 1890s to independence in the 1960s Indians intellectual economic and political connections with South Asia shaped their understanding of their lives in Kenya Sana Aiyar investigates how the many strands of Indians diasporic identity influenced Kenya's political leadership from claiming partnership with Europeans in their mission to colonize and civilize East Africa to successful collaborations with Africans to battle for racial equality including during the Mau Mau Rebellion She also explores how the hierarchical structures of colonial governance the material inequalities between Indians and Africans and the racialized political discourses that flourished in both colonial and postcolonial Kenya limited the success of alliances across racial and class lines Aiyar demonstrates that only by examining the ties that bound Indians to worlds on both sides of the Indian Ocean can we understand how Kenya came to terms with its South Asian minority Revisiting Diaspora Spaces in India: A Contemporary Overview Joydev Maity,2023-09-12 This edited volume is a detailed and critical study of Indian diaspora writings and its diverse themes It focuses on dynamics and contemporary perspectives of Indian diaspora writings and analyzes emerging themes of this field like the experience of the Bihari diaspora migration to Gulf countries the relation between diasporic experience and self translation uprootedness and resistance discourse through ecocritical praxis and many more With the aid of a subtle theoretical framework the volume closely examines some of the key texts such as Goat Days Baumgartner s Bombay An Atlas of Impossible Longing The Circle of Reason and authors including Shauna Singh Baldwin M G Vassanji Sarat Chandra Chattopadhyay V S Naipaul and others The book also explores diaspora literature written in regional language and later translated into English and how they align with the fundamental Indian diaspora writings A significant contribution to Indian diaspora writings this volume will be of great importance to scholars and researchers of diaspora literature migration and border studies cultural memory and translation studies

The Postcolonial Subject in Transit Delphine Fongang,2018-01-19 The Postcolonial Subject in Transit presents in depth analyses of the complex transitional migratory identities evident in emerging African diasporic writings It provides insights into the hybridity of the migrant experience where the migrant struggles to negotiate new cultural spaces It shows that while some migrants successfully adapt and integrate into new Western locales others exist at the margins unable to fully negotiate cultural difference The diaspora becomes a space for opportunities and economic mobility as well as alienation and uncertainties This illuminates the heterogeneity of the African diasporic narrative expanding the dialogue of the diaspora from one of simply loss and melancholia to self realization and empowerment

World Literature and the Postcolonial Elke Sturm-Trigonakis,2020-05-18 This volume approaches literary representations of post and neocolonialism by combining their readings with respective theoretical configurations The aim is to cast light upon common characteristics of contemporary texts from around the world that deal with processes of colonization Based on the epistemic discourses of postimperialism postcolonialism globalization and world literature the volume s chapters bring together international scholars from various disciplines in the Humanities including Comparative Cultural Studies Slavic Romance German and African Studies The main concern of the contributions is to conceptualize an autonomous category of a world literature of the colonial going well beyond established classifications according to single languages or center periphery dichotomies

Everything There Is M.G. Vassanji,2024-08-27 From two time Giller Prize winner M G Vassanji one of Canada s finest and most celebrated writers comes a brilliant new novel that vividly examines the seemingly incongruous worlds of science religion and desire Nurul Islam is a world renowned physicist professor at Imperial College London and one half of the Islam Rosenfeld theory the first step in a grand unification of forces and a Theory of Everything A family man profoundly influenced by his pious father Nurul is happily married to Sakina Begum by an arranged marriage They have three children But when Nurul travels to Cambridge Massachusetts to give a public lecture at Harvard he falls in love with a graduate student Hilary

Chase At the same time Nurul Islam's outspoken philosophical views about the nature of physics and God have earned him the ire of fundamentalist preachers in Pakistan. He makes enemies of the political and military establishments when he refuses to contribute to Pakistan's nuclear weapons project. Meanwhile a contingent of physicists begins a smear campaign claiming that Nurul Islam's contribution to the unification theory was plagiarized. All these events converge upon Sakina Begum who smarting from her husband's betrayal unwittingly commits a betrayal of her own. Everything that has worked together as though preordained since his childhood to take him to the pinnacle of scientific achievement suddenly falls apart. An exceptionally wise and intimate account of love, honour, guilt and genius. Everything There Is gives us an engaging portrait of a traditional spiritual man facing the onslaught of inescapable forces. No New Land M.G. Vassanji, 2012-09-04 Nurdin Lalani and his family Asian immigrants from Africa have come to the Toronto suburb of Don Mills only to find that the old world and its values pursue them. A genial orderly at a downtown hospital he has been accused of sexually assaulting a girl. Although he is innocent traditional propriety prompts him to question the purity of his own thoughts. Ultimately his friendship with the enlightened Sushila offers him an alluring freedom from a past that haunts him, a marriage that has become routine and from the trials of coping with teenage children. Introducing us to a cast of vividly drawn characters within this immigrant community Vassanji is a keen observer of lives caught between one world and another. Reconfiguring

Transregionalisation in the Global South Ross Anthony, Uta Ruppert, 2019-11-01 This volume examines the Africa-Asia relationship from a transregional perspective namely as a set of emergent social, political and economic practices spanning a number of analytical and spatial scales. Drawing on a host of countries from both regions the contributions illustrate how encounters increasingly transcend fixed territorial categories at local, national and regional levels. While large-scale political and economic considerations tend to dominate in Asia-Africa related literature for instance in China-Africa BRICS and South-South discourses the current volume seeks to foster dialogue between these broader levels of analyses and more localized social practices and experiences including the role of civil society, cultural production and migration. With an emphasis on the trans-aspects of inter-regional exchange the volume contributes to a better understanding of new forms of space-making between these two increasingly important regions. Writers/Editors/Critics (WEC) Vol. 6, No. 2 Mahasweta Devi, D. Postcolonialism Cross-Examined Monika Albrecht,2019-06-19 Taking a strikingly interdisciplinary and global approach Postcolonialism Cross Examined reflects on the current status of postcolonial studies and attempts to break through traditional boundaries creating a truly comparative and genuinely global phenomenon Drawing together the field of mainstream postcolonial studies with post Soviet postcolonial studies and studies of the late Ottoman Empire the contributors in this volume question many of the concepts and assumptions we have become accustomed to in postcolonial studies creating a fresh new version of the field The volume calls the merits of the field into question investigating how postcolonial studies may have perpetuated and normalized colonialism as an issue exclusive to Western colonial and imperial powers The volume is the first to open a dialogue between three different areas of postcolonial scholarship that previously developed independently from one another the wide field of postcolonial studies working on European colonialism the growing field of post Soviet postcolonial post imperial studies the still fledgling field of post Ottoman postcolonial post imperial studies supported by sideways glances at the multidirectional conditions of interaction in East Africa and the East and West Indies Postcolonialism Cross Examined looks at topics such as humanism nationalism multiculturalism nostalgia and the Anthropocene in order to piece together a new broader vision for postcolonial studies in the twenty first century By including territories other than those covered by the postcolonial mainstream the book strives to reframe the postcolonial as a genuinely global phenomenon and develop multidirectional postcolonial perspectives International Management Sheila M.
