Transformative Intercultural Global Education Barreto, Isabel María Gómez, Roman Etxebarrieta, Gorka, 2024-05-13 In this tumultuous world characterized by unprecedented migratory movements societal evolution intersects with an increasing diversity that presents profound challenges The global landscape is marked by 33 armed conflicts in 2022 alone resulting in forced displacement and an exceeding count of 100 million displaced individuals worldwide The traditional understanding of migration as a response to individualized prosecution has expanded to encompass survival migration incorporating environmental change and livelihood collapse This paradigm shift necessitates a reevaluation of human rights and a compelling call for transformative global and intercultural education to address the vulnerabilities inequities and discrimination faced by displaced and native youth Transformative Intercultural Global Education is a project aimed at shedding light on educational inequalities stemming from race migration forced displacement and cultural factors Through innovative empirical results theoretical frameworks and educational practices this book seeks to contribute to quality education and subsequently a more sustainable society The objective is to provide educators with proposals that strengthen educational policies and programs aligned with global citizenship fostering sensitivity critical thinking and commitment towards respectful and tolerant coexistence The research outcomes are designed to encourage actions that promote equity social justice and the sustainable development of a global society

Heist! Anneliese Burgess, 2018-05-01 The last twenty four hours before a heist take forever You are ready You can't wait You are already thinking about the money It's a kind of high that programs your mind You are excited You just want to get it done That moment when there is no turning back when it is about to go down all your senses come alive your eyes everything comes alive It's extreme like a phenomenal rush of ecstasy It's the thing that makes you want to do it again From the horror of the 2006 Villa Nora heist where four security guards were burnt alive in their armoured vehicle after a ferocious fight back against highly trained mercenaries to the 2016 robbery of a cash centre in Witbank where a gang made off with almost R104 million after impersonating police officers Heist is an impeccably researched exposé of an endemic crime phenomenon that some analysts warn could bring South Africa to its knees Using the information gleaned from thousands of pages of court documents and press reports as well as interviews with scores of police officers crime intelligence agents prosecutors defence lawyers researchers journalists security guards and the criminals themselves Heist provides an unprecedented insight into a crime that has increased by a staggering 49 per cent in the first eight months of 2017 alone As informative and thought provoking as it is distressing this is a book by an investigative journalist at the top of her game

Power and Loss in South African Journalism Glenda Daniels,2020-07-01 This timely collection of essays analyses the crisis of journalism in contemporary South Africa at a period when the media and their role are frequently at the centre of public debate The transition to digital news has been messy random and unpredictable The spread of news via social media platforms has given rise to political propaganda fake news and a flattening of news to banality and gossip Media companies however continue to shrink newsrooms ousting experienced journalists in favour of content producers Against this backdrop Daniels points out the contribution of investigative journalists to exposing corruption and sees new opportunities emerging to forge a model for the future of non profit public funded journalism Engaging and dynamic the book argues for the power of public interest journalism including investigative journalism and a diversity of voices and positions to be reflected in the news It addresses the gains and losses from decolonial and feminist perspectives and advocates for a radical shift in the way power is constituted by the media in the South African postcolony A valuable introduction to the confusion that confronts journalism students it has much to offer practising media professionals Daniels uses her years of experience as a newspaper journalist to write with authority and illuminate complex issues about newsroom politics Interviews with alienated media professionals and a semi autobiographical lens add a personal element that will appeal to readers interested in the inner life of the media

Engaging the fourth industrial revolution Jan-Albert van den Bergh,2020-01-01 The reality of a radically changing world is beyond dispute The notion of the Fourth Industrial Revolution is a heuristic key for the world of emerging technologies such as artificial intelligence nanotechnology quantum computing big data the internet of things and biotechnology The discussion of emerging technologies and the Fourth Industrial Revolution highlights urgent questions about issues like intention function risk and responsibility This publication stimulates further reflection ongoing conversation and eventually the production of more textured thinking The conversation with technology and with thinkers on technology holds the promise of a certain fecundity the possibility to see deeper into human evolution but also may be into the future of humankind Ideology, Political Transitions and the City Aleksandra Djurasovic, 2016-06-10 Recent history has seen

Bosnian and Herzegovinian BiH cities undergoing several transitions Their cities have developed under socialism 1945 1992 have suffered through the civil war during the 1990s and during the last twenty years have been undergoing a slow and multifaceted transition to an indeterminate end point Focusing on the post socialist postwar and neoliberal transitions experienced in BiH the book shows that planning systems deviated from control oriented and top down regulation to flexible approaches for more open for informal development The book analyzes several levels of planning related processes the former Yugoslavia BiH the city of Mostar and three urban zones the Industrial Zone Bi e Polje the City Zone Rondo and the Historic District and the Old Town Zone in order to offer insights into the new planning systems in the late phase of post socialist transition #Journalism4.0 #Joernalistiek4.0 Lizette Rabe, 2018-03-01 Stellenbosch University s Department of Journalism celebrates its 40th anniversary with this publication reflecting on the four decades between 1978 and 2018 and all that happened behind 26 Crozier Street s front door But in essence it celebrates a lot more It is an assessment of the importance of the media s essential role in a democracy This collection of essays therefore is a celebration of the inalienable right of freedom of expression especially in the form of media freedom Indo-Mozambicans in Maputo, 1947-1992

Nafeesah Allen, 2022-11-01 This book explores the experiences of Indo Mozambicans citizens and residents of Mozambique who can trace their origins to the Indian subcontinent a region affected by competing colonialisms during the twentieth century Drawing from ethnographic interviews the author illustrates why migration developed as both an identity marker and a survival tool for Indo Mozambicans living in Maputo in response to the series of independence movements and prolonged period of geo political uncertainty that extended from 1947 to 1992 A unique examination of post colonialism the book argues that four pivotal moments in history forced migratory patterns and ethnic identity formations to emerge among Indo Mozambicans namely the end of the British empire in India and the subsequent partition of India and Pakistan in 1947 the end of the Portuguese empire in India with the annexation of Goa Daman and Diu in 1961 the independence of Mozambique from Portugal in 1975 and the civil war of Mozambique from 1977 to 1992 Framing these historical markers as trigger points for shifts in migration and identity formation this book demonstrates the layered experiences of people subject to Portuguese colonialism and highlights the important perspective of those left behind in migration studies Handbook of Research on
