Dimensions of the Community College Norma Tarrow, Rosalind Latiner Raby, 2014-02-04 Providing critical as well as pragmatic analysis this volume examines the education programs that form an integral part of U S community colleges and their models abroad The book s 15 original essays examine a variety of international and inter multicultural education programs at selected North American community colleges and explore how the U S community college model is utilized in other nations The book includes 11 tables charts three maps four diagrams figures and a subject index Transforming Healthcare in Africa Robert Dibie,2025-01-14 The current available books and literature that shed light on health policies in many African countries are limited Transforming Healthcare in Africa A Comparative Analysis by Professor Robert Dibie examines the key players in the health system game in many African countries It explores the regulatory regimes that impact the health systems such as the Ministry of Health It also provides few case studies of the relationship between the government the environment and their citizens Apart from filling the gap in the healthcare policy in African literature the authors also seek to examine the impacts of weak health policies and the inability to effectively formulate solid initiatives for capacity building that could lead to enhanced healthcare delivery for all their citizens Thus Dibie s book provides evidence to inform scholarly discussion on the best approaches to strengthen healthcare delivery and public health capacity in many African countries The book also sought to answer six research questions 1 How is healthcare delivery perceived by African countries 2 How are healthcare policies implemented in urban and rural regions or local governments in African countries 3 To what extent are current health services delivered to respond to all citizens needs in African countries 4 What is the current capacity for rural or local governments to effectively engage in health service delivery 5 How can citizens living in rural and urban regions be empowered in the health development delivery system and 6 Which is the best evidence based management system adopted to improve affordable healthcare system in many African countries It also fills the gap in the literature of health systems in Africa Global Development of the Community College Model Carmen L. McCrink,Heidi Whitford,Natasha C. Stubbs,2017-03-13 While the community college is a longstanding institutional type within the U S the success of this model has recently garnered international attention As countries outside the U S grapple with issues regarding access and affordability of higher education opportunity the concept of the community college has gained traction This issue explores The global expansion and development of the community college model in various countries and regions around the world Insights into the establishment and sustainability of these institutions in other countries through research and analysis and Case studies that focus on the development and implementation process of community colleges amid various social political and economic contexts This is the 177th volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Essential to the professional libraries of presidents vice presidents deans and other leaders in today s open door institutions New Directions for Community Colleges provides expert guidance in meeting the challenges of their distinctive and expanding educational mission Teaching across the Curriculum Akpovire Oduaran,James Omonu,Walter Lumadi,Kola Kazeem,2021-11-16 The COVID 19 pandemic posed a serious challenge to teaching across the educational system Many young people in Africa now perceive education as fraudulent and not useful in providing employment and sustaining their lives Thus it becomes sacrosanct for teachers to adjust their methods of teaching in line with the reality of our time This book will serve to help teachers and lecturers to be dynamic efficient and effective in their chosen profession It was written by scholars with many years of teaching and researching on professional development in different specialties in Africa and has been peer reviewed by eminent and highly rated scholars from various universities throughout the continent Deanship in the Global South Oliver J.J.

Seale,2021-02-08 The university today is a postmodern neo liberal competitive boundary less knowledge conglomerate a far cry from its historical traditional classical and collegial roots There is a body of literature on deanship that points to its evolving nature in the contemporary academe characterised by complexity and change Balancing academic demands simultaneously with the requirements for effective performance leadership and management lies at the heart of this very challenging bridging role nowadays Deans are generally former academics emerging from a traditional collegial space and often catapulted into the relatively unknown domain of executive management with its related problems Deans nowadays are required to be more than collegial intellectual leaders They are also meant to be fiscal and human resource experts fundraisers politicians and diplomats Deanship in the Global South Bridging Troubled Waters is about the deans lived reality as they try to balance the demands of both the academe from which they emerge and the administration to whom they now need to account Their lack of preparation and inadequate support points to the need for a more strategic integrated approach to leadership development within their critical bridging roles between the academe and administration
