Anglo-Saxon Society

How was Anglo-Saxon society organised?

- The ~2 million Anglo-Saxons were organised in a social hierarchy based on the importance and power of different groups.
- At the bottom was 10% of the population of slaves. They could be bought and sold but often you were a slave because you sold yourself into it. It was not based on race but place in society.
- Peasant farmers and ceorls made up ~1.8M people. Peasant farmers rented small farms ~1 hide large and had to work for the local lord. A Ceorl was not tied to their land and could work for another lord.
- The next 4-5,000 people were the thegns. Professional soldiers holding 5+ hides of land, living in a manor house and funding a church.
- The top was the aristocracy, the richest and most powerful. The earls had a personal relationship with the king and was based on loyalty.

How did the monarch control the country?

- The king had powers to make new laws, these laws and orders were made through writs - official documents.
- The king controlled money through taxation, he kept 2/3s of all tax collected. Additionally, he controlled the production of minting and distributing coins.
- The king had military power as he could raise the fyrd army or a fleet.
- The king could grant land to loyal followers, or take it away in punishment.
- The king was advised by the Witan, a council of earls and Bishops. Though, he did not have to follow their advice.

How were earldoms governed?

- The earls had special powers to support the king run the country
- They collected taxes for the king. They were able to keep 1/3rd to help govern and protect their earldom.
- They oversaw law and order in their earldom, judging cases and deciding punishments.
- They were the king's 'generals', leading their thegns in battle and supported by housecarls.
- At the time of Edward the Confessor, the most powerful Earldom was Wessex, led by Godwin, and then his son Harold Godwinson.

How did Anglo-Saxons use law and order?

- The king was represented by a shire reeve (sheriff), they had to collect tax from land, the geld tax, and fines from the shire. As well as enforcing laws at the shire court and collecting men for the fyrd.
