The global security challenges after the post Cold war period has affected many countries Pakistan's geography and location present its security planners with serious almost irresolvable strategic and tactical problems It borders the nuclear states of India and China an ambitious Iran and an unstable Afghanistan which is perceived as a gateway to its commercial strategic ambitions in Central Asia Pakistan's key security problems are a reflection of its history and domestic circumstances The overriding concern of Pakistan is its internal and external security Strategically Pakistan lacks territorial depth Its main cities and communication routes are relatively close to the border with India and are susceptible to attack In addition the headwaters of Pakistan's rivers and main irrigation systems originate from India Pakistan's borders with India were also new and mainly unfortified and in many places were drawn in ways that made them indefensible Because the borders were also un demarcated there was abundant chance for conflict Pakistan has particularly been affected with a number of issues It has been argued by many that a Fourth generation Hybrid war has been imposed on Pakistan in order to break the nation Balkanization of Pakistan into different parts with the aim of making it either extremely weak or total destruction as a nation state so that it is not able to challenge the hegemonistic ambitions of its adversaries The purpose of this book is to assess the military security problems that Pakistan faces and focus on its external security matters military threats from neighbouring countries such as India balance of power in the region nuclear and ballistic missile threats relationship with external powers the high risk of war and its role on the War on Terror and its internal security problems sectarianism proliferation of small arms refugees ethnic violence drug problem economic percent of all proceeds from this novel go toward helping child and sex trafficking victims in Cambodia through Agape International Missions

Q A with Science Fiction and Fantasy Author Maggie Lynn Heron Heidel

What inspired you to write this novel

This series you mean

Well all one has to do is look around at our current times

Looking at the government of my fictional city Nacin it very much echoes the governments of the world today

We see deadly consequences of corruption and greed that only seem to affect the average citizen while the politicians sit in their golden palaces plotting their next move

It leaves our soldiers and policemen between them and the public facing the scrutiny that should fall on those in power

Another layer of inspiration comes from human trafficking

It is a worldwide problem that I feel needs attention

Slaves and sex trafficking are definitely not a thing of the past

It is a daily occurrence that is virtually ignored by the general populace

Where can one learn more about the human trafficking industry and how to help victims affected by it

There a number of charities such as Agape International Missions who specialize in helping victims with recovery and combating the industry

In fact ten percent of all proceeds from this book go to their ministry to combat human trafficking

What age group would you feel would enjoy this series best

Due to the violence and mature themes I would say a minimum of ninth grade would be best

After that I believe it is inclusive of all ages
