

The French revolution

The French Revolution was a period of political and social upheaval in France from 1789 to 1799. The Revolution had a profound impact not only on France but on the rest of Europe and the world. It marked the end of the Ancien Régime and the beginning of modern France. This essay will explore the causes of the French Revolution, the key events and figures of the Revolution, and its legacy.

Causes of the French Revolution

The French Revolution was caused by a combination of long-term and short-term factors. The long-term causes included the growing discontent of the French people with the oppressive rule of the Bourbon monarchy and the privileges enjoyed by the nobility and clergy. The French monarchy was widely seen as corrupt, wasteful and out of touch with the needs of the people. Many French people were also inspired by the ideas of the Enlightenment, which emphasized individual freedom, reason, and progress.

The short-term causes of the Revolution were primarily economic. France was facing a severe financial crisis due to its involvement in costly wars, including the American Revolutionary War, and the extravagant spending of King Louis XVI and his court. The government had attempted to raise revenue through taxes, but these measures were highly unpopular and ineffective.

Key events and figures of the French Revolution

The French Revolution can be divided into three main phases: the moderate phase (1789-1792), the radical phase (1792-1794), and the Thermidorian reaction (1794-1799). Each phase was marked by different events and figures.

The moderate phase began with the convening of the Estates-General in May 1789. The Estates-General was a representative assembly composed of members of the three estates: the clergy, the nobility, and the commoners. The commoners, who made up the vast majority of the French population, were dissatisfied with the unequal representation in the Estates-General and formed the National Assembly. On July 14, 1789, a mob stormed the Bastille, a symbol of royal power, in Paris, marking the beginning of the Revolution. In August 1789, the National Assembly abolished feudalism and adopted the Declaration of the Rights of Man and Citizen, which proclaimed liberty, equality, and fraternity as the basis of French society.

timelines of major events in European history The French Revolutionary Tradition in Russian and Soviet Politics, Political Thought, and Culture Jay Bergman, 2019-08-14 Because they were Marxists the Bolsheviks in Russia both before and after taking power in 1917 believed that the past was prologue that embedded in history was a Holy Grail a series of mysterious but nonetheless accessible and comprehensible universal laws that explained the course of history from beginning to end Those who understood these laws would be able to mould the future to conform to their own expectations But what should the Bolsheviks do if their Marxist ideology proved to be either erroneous or insufficient if it could not explain or explain fully the course of events that followed the revolution they carried out in the country they called the Soviet Union Something else would have to perform this function The underlying argument of this volume is that the Bolsheviks saw the revolutions in France in 1789 1830 1848 and 1871 as supplying practically everything Marxism lacked In fact these four events comprised what for the Bolsheviks was a genuine Revolutionary Tradition The English Revolution and the Puritan Commonwealth of the seventeenth century were not without utility the Bolsheviks cited them and occasionally utilized them as propaganda but these paled in comparison to what the revolutions in France offered a century later namely legitimacy inspiration guidance in
