

ORDINANCE OF SECESSION
PASSED JANUARY 19, 1861.

We do further Declare and Ordain, that the Union now subsisting between the State of Georgia and other States, under the name of the United States of America, is Hereby Dissolved, and that the State of Georgia is in the full possession and exercise of all those rights of Sovereignty, which belong and appertain to a Free and Independent State.

[illegible]

Ch. R. Lerner, Lansing

WE, the undersigned, Delegates to the Convention of the State of Georgia, in this Session, whilst we most solemnly Protest against the action of the majority in adopting an Ordinance for the disunion and separate Secession of this State, and would have preferred the policy of co-operation with our southern sister States,—yet, as good citizens, we yield to the will of a majority of her people, as expressed by their Representatives; and we hereby pledge our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor to the defense of Georgia, if necessary, against hostile invasion from any source whatever.

Parties, Slavery, and the Union in Antebellum Georgia Anthony Gene Carey,2012-02-01 At the heart of Georgia s secession from the Union in 1861 were two ideological cornerstones the protection of white men s liberty and the defense of African slavery Anthony Gene Carey argues in this comprehensive analytical narrative of the three decades leading up to the Civil War In Georgia broad consensus on political essentials restricted the range of state party differences and the scope of party debate but Whigs and Democrats battled intensely over how best to protect Southern rights and institutions within the Union The power and security that national party alliances promised attracted Georgians but the compromises and accommodations that maintaining such alliances required also repelled them By 1861 Carey finds white men who were out of time fearful of further compromise and compelled to choose acted to preserve liberty and slavery by taking Georgia out of the Union Secession the ultimate expression of white unity flowed logically from the values attitudes and antagonisms developed during three decades of political strife The History of the State of Georgia from 1850 to 1881 Isaac Wheeler Avery,1881
