Ascendancy Women and Elementary Education in Ireland Eilís O'Sullivan, 2017-06-30. This book outlines the lives of six female members of the Irish Ascendancy and describes their involvement with educational provision for poor children in Ireland at the end of the long eighteenth century. It argues that these women were moved by empathy and by a sense of duty and that they were motivated by political considerations, pragmatism and especially religious belief. The book highlights the women's agency and locates their contribution in international and literary contexts and by exploring sources and evidence not previously considered it generates an enhanced understanding of Ascendancy women's involvement with the provision of elementary education for poor Irish children. This book will appeal to scholars and researchers in the fields of Education and History of Education. It will also have broad appeal for those interested in Gender and Women's Studies in Georgian Ireland and in the history of Ascendancy families and estates.

Perspectives on Childhood Aisling Leavy, Margaret Nohilly, 2021-07-27. This collection brings together various cutting edge and accessible perspectives and insights into the rich, complex and intriguing stage of life that is childhood. Contributions here relate specifically to the Irish context with many seamless connections also made to the universal themes of childhood and their relevance within the international context. The chapters are organised into four themes: 1. Children and families in education and special education settings; 2. Children's environment and play spaces; 3. Children's voice in research classrooms and non traditional settings; and 4. Children's experiences in STEM education. Across the chapters the authors identify current best practices and place them within the overall context of current trends in research into childhood. There is a complementary balance of theoretical and practical knowledge presented throughout the volume. Given the variety of perspectives and contributions presented here it will be of interest to those working in professional practice such as educators, psychologists, sociologists and the more general public including parents and policymakers.
