Critical Thinking for Better Learning Carole Hamilton,2016-08-08 Critical Thinking for Better Learning shifts the focus from teaching to learning and from presenting information to creating challenges that teach students how to think in your discipline The shift derives from three new insights from cognitive science that we think by analogy that we learn best when we process clear focused sources and develop our own theories about our findings and that there are key threshold concepts that define the discipline and make it attractive to young practitioners This book explains each of these insights in direct clear language with examples of how to implement them in your own classroom Statement ,1988 Cortical Evolution in Primates Steven P.

Wise,2023-11-27 Cortical Evolution in Primates provides a stand alone resource for neuroscience graduate students and established neuroscientists who have an interest in cortical evolution and primates Discussions of both cortical evolution and primates often rely on terms and concepts unfamiliar to many neuroscientists but such readers will have no need to look elsewhere to understand the text or figures in this book As well as reviewing the pertinent terminology and taxonomy Wise explores the palaeontology adaptations and paleoecology of primates Through summarizing a neglected source of data fossil primates the book harnesses the power of comparative neuroanatomy to examine how cortical maps changed during primate evolution including nine proposals on why the cortex changed Together these topics inform a full understanding of cortical evolution in primates Wise concludes that the cortex expanded more recently than most neuroscientists suspect and it happened many times Furthermore cortical expansion occurred independently in several major primate lineages as ancestral primates adapted to the ecosystems of their time and place Natural selection favored the expansion of cortical areas with neural representations that provided a selective advantage to ancestral primates in those times and those places

Teachable Moments James V.
