The Heinrich Prophecy:

Prophecy and the Battle for Spiritual Authority, 1360-1400 Frances Courtney Kneupper, 2025-07-02 The end of the fourteenth century was a time of upheaval and contested authority among the traditional institutions of medieval Europe In response to these conditions a number of people began to claim their own authority as prophets speaking the word of God They came from outside of the clerical elite and were mostly women and reformers This book examines the battle over authority which ensued Prophetic women and other non elites successfully used prophecy to exert influence and to enter the corridors of power while educated male clerics insinuated that prophecy was the product of demonic influence and therefore a hazard to the public Surprisingly a third faction also emerged an international network of clerical men who wrote in support of female prophecy This volume traces the arguments made by these three groups the clashes that erupted and the long term impacts of this battle on ideas of spiritual authority Heinrich Bullinger on Prophecy and the Prophetic Office (1523-1538) Daniël Timmerman, 2015-02-18 It has often been noted that the Protestant Reformation of the early sixteenth century witnessed a revived interest in the scriptural notions of prophets and prophecy Drawing from both late medieval apocalyptic expectations of the immanent end of the world and from a humanist revival of biblical studies the prophet appeared to many as a suitable role model for the Protestant preacher A prominent proponent of this prophetic model was the Swiss theologian and church leader Heinrich Bullinger 1504 1575 This study by Daniël Timmerman presents the first in depth investigation of Bullinger's concept of prophecy and his understanding of the prophetic office It also engages with the history of the Zurich institute for the study of the Scriptures which has become widely known as the Prophezei Noted
