2 pages | 379 words

Thank you all for coming on this special day to celebrate the graduation of the Pre-K "Rockstars" class of 2011. This is a monumental occasion in the lives of our children. It is also a time to recognize the outstanding work and support of all the staff here, the parents, and most of all the students. Just looking around at the smiling faces says so much about the culture here at our school. Each morning, my heart just melts, when I see those smiling faces that are followed by their warm embraces which continually remind me of why I love teaching and how lucky I am to be a part of their lives. I am so impressed with their progress this year and they have grown to see learning as fun, exciting with a passion that will help them as they advance with their education. Looking ahead, our children are very well equipped to take on the next part of their personal and educational lives. They have formed have a strong foundation and I feel especially confident that we have given our children a great start in life with the knowledge of many priceless lessons. So, To the Class of 2011, Pre-K Rockstars, "My Chickadees":

- challenge yourself
- have a kind heart
- enjoy learning
- give back to others
- laugh and love
- And be all you can be!

In closing, I would like to dedicate this poem to my special chickadees...This one is for you.... "To My Special Chickadees" I want to let know,

How much you mean to me And how fast the year did go! Please come back to visit me All through the years you grow, Try to learn and love all that you can There is so much for you to know I'm glad I am your teacher I've come to love you so, I can't believe the end is here. It is so hard to see you go The one thing I tried to teach you to last your whole life through, Is to know that you always be "my special chickadees" And there's is no one else like you! So it's with all my heart

I send you on your way, with great hope and expectations for years of happiness and bliss to stay.

Taylor-Robinson, Nehemia Geva, 2023 There are many theories as to why women remain severely underrepresented in democratic governments Perhaps voters do not consider women to be capable leaders or maybe party elites obstruct women's paths to office because they don't believe that they are electable But if these attitudes are hurdles standing in the way of women being elected to office where did they develop In The Image of Gender and Political Leadership

Michelle M Taylor Robinson and Nehemia Geva bring together parallel experiments conducted in countries around the world to compare the ways in which young adults view gender and leadership Together the chapters in this book present findings from on site experiments conducted with over 6 000 young adult students of highly diverse socio economic backgrounds in eight countries that have varying levels of experience with women in government Canada Chile Costa Rica England Israel Sweden the United States and Uruguay Overall the book finds little evidence of traditional gender stereotypes that would limit young people s support for women as political leaders Women candidates are accepted as leaders by the participants indicating young adults approval of women s ability to hold diverse posts win votes and manage stereotypically masculine policy areas The book also finds that young adults are very responsive to political party regardless of gender they tend to favor candidates from their preferred parties With an in depth cross national perspective Taylor Robinson and Geva provide empirical evidence to dispel myths about what contributes to the low election rates of women and importantly investigate logical steps to achieve gender parity
