Why is it important to fulfill our obligations of citizenship?	When citizens meet their obligations to the government, they are making the United States a better and better place to live. By following the law and not committing crimes, responsibilities are less dangerous places. By paying taxes, citizens are making sure that the government can afford to provide services that benefit the general public. By defending the nation if called to do so, citizens are making sure that those who live in the United States are protected from enemies who may harm us. By serving on jury, citizens are making sure that the right to a trial by jury is protected.
Why is it important for citizens to be active participants in their community?	Continuously commit funds the common good. Citizenship requires a citizen to be a good citizen. Citizenship and active participation are the best way to find the solution.
