willing to travel with me Duffill was one of them He was old and his clothes were far too big for him but he had many oddly shaped parcels wrapped in string and brown paper 2 The train was speeding through Clapham I had left England behind The sky was old Schoolboys in dark blue blazers carrying cricket bats and school bags were smirking on the platform at Tonbridge We didn't stop at the larger stations 3 I boarded the Paris Express which was floodlit I was comforted by the thought that I could get to the Kurds without getting into a packet again I sat down with the roll shredding couple who explained that I'd have to ask the wine waiter 4 I was shocked by the cost of the meal which was about ten dollars I had my small revenge by leaving my newspaper on the table in the dining car The waiter took it from me and said This is your paper before handing it back to me

The Old Patagonian Express Paul Theroux, 2014-11-18 The acclaimed travel writer journeys by train across the Americas from Boston to Patagonia in this international bestselling travel memoir Starting with a rush hour subway ride to South Station in Boston to catch the Lake Shore Limited to Chicago Paul Theroux takes a grand railway adventure first across the United States and then south through Mexico Central America and across the Andes until he winds up on the meandering Old Patagonian Express steam engine His epic commute finally comes to a halt in a desolate land of cracked hills and thorn bushes that reaches toward Antarctica Along the way Theroux demonstrates how train travel can reveal the social miseries and scenic splendors of a continent And through his perceptive prose we learn that what matters most are the people he meets along the way including the monologuing Mr Thornberry in Costa Rica the bogus priest of Cali and the blind Jorge Luis Borges who delights in having Theroux read Robert Louis Stevenson to him

Travel Writing and Re-Enactment Lucas Tromly, 2023-09-07 Travel Writing and Re Enactment Echotourism explores the popular subgenre of travel narratives that re enact historically prominent journeys Drawing on philosopher Walter Benjamin this monograph reads such re enactments as quests for aura in which travellers seek to capture a sense of distinction and historical profundity Travel Writing and Re Enactment frames the re enactment of past journeys in a number of contexts including Benjamin's writing on mechanical reproduction Judith Butler's work on gender performance and postmodern parody Echotourist journeys are surprisingly contingent and precarious and force travellers to navigate historical changes involving empire gender and travel practice in densely performative ways Through close readings of contemporary travel narratives this monograph considers the legacies of Lord Byron Charles Darwin Graham Greene Mary Kingsley and Ernest Shackleton among others Travel Writing and Re Enactment examines the way literary re enactment expresses and sometimes confounds the desire to find meaning through travel in the contemporary world

Last Call for the Dining Car Michael Kerr, 2011-08-15 Ever since Paul Theroux embarked in London on the first train of his Great Railway Bazaar railways have been a rich source for the best travel writing This is truer than ever in the twenty first century As the environmental implications of relentless air travel cast an ominous shadow over the prospect of foreign adventure the opportunity to jump on a train at St Pancras and be whisked straight to the continent offers a wonderful alternative Train travel has assumed a new pragmatic importance as well as romance which is no doubt why so many more tour companies are offering a great train ride as part of their holiday itineraries Now Michael Kerr the Telegraph's deputy Travel Editor has burrowed deep in the newspaper's archives and collected together the very best of its writings about the railway here are journeys non stop from London to Vladivostok across the Canadian Rockies the first train to traverse Australia from Darwin to Alice Springs and on the teeming crawling travelling adventure of Indian railways In scenes much more familiar to the British commuter Boris Johnson discovers his inner McEnroe thanks to signal failure in the Midlands and Michael Palin samples the delights of British Rail Inter City This is an anthology that will appeal to the railway buff and the armchair traveller alike to anyone who has ever Inter railed in their youth and everyone nostalgic for the days when the only way to cross a continent was by train
