rights The second goal is to show how the extent of test fairness can be demonstrated and improved using the tools of psychometrics in particular the models collectively known as Rasch measurement This book will have an enormous impact on the field of language assessment Using Rasch analysis models to explore and identify sources of unfairness the authors make a compelling case for fairness in the design and implementation of language assessment instruments and for justice in the interpretation and use of test results A real strength of the book is that it guides readers through analytical techniques in an accessible way Dan Douglas Professor Emeritus Applied Linguistics Program Iowa State University

Swami and Friends, The Bachelor of Arts, The Dark Room, The English Teacher R. K. Narayan, 2009-06-03 R K Narayan 1906 2001

witnessed nearly a century of change in his native India and captured it in fiction of uncommon warmth and vibrancy The four novels collected here all written during British rule bring colonial India into intimate focus through the narrative gifts of this master of literary realism Swami and Friends introduces us to Narayan s beloved fictional town of Malgudi where ten year old Swaminathan s excitement about his country s initial stirrings for independence competes with his ardor for cricket and all other things British The Bachelor of Arts is a poignant coming of age novel about a young man flush with first love but whose freedom to pursue it is hindered by the fixed ideas of his traditional Hindu family In The Dark Room Narayan s portrait of aggrieved domesticity the docile and obedient Savitri like many Malgudi women is torn between submitting to her husband s humiliations and trying to escape them The title character in The English Teacher Narayan s most autobiographical novel searches for meaning when the death of his young wife deprives him of his greatest source of happiness These pioneering novels luminous in their detail and refreshingly free of artifice are a gift to twentieth century literature
