Linda Linda Leven, 2014-11-06 It was upon moving to New York City from my hometown of Pittsburgh that I first noticed this strange phenomenon In Pittsburgh I mostly rode around in a car driven by my mother or father But in New York arriving at the age of 19 I walked the streets and rode the subways mixing with the citizenry of the famous city It was then that I first became aware of it People continuously stared at me Or they yelled out comments or mumbled them under their breath as they passed Or they simply made faces grimaced smiled laughed looked puzzled angry bewildered amused or showed disdain and contempt Or they would pass me and then stop to look back or look over their shoulder as they walked For sure traversing the streets of the great city I seemed to create for others a mini sideshow of sorts But why were they staring at me And why were they yelling out comments And why were they making faces I remember many times moving from the middle of the sidewalk into a sheltered doorway fumbling in my purse for my mirror and then looking to see what was wrong Why was I causing a commotion Maybe a bird has pooped into my hair Maybe I have a huge black spot of city soot on my face Maybe my makeup is smeared in some amusing way Maybe my hair has blown around to create some bizarre hair do Such were my thoughts But never could I find anything strange I just saw my face as I had always seen it Granted I did wear a lot of makeup an almost white makeup base green eye shadow black mascara pink rouge red lipstick and heavy black eyeliner top and bottom But New York had lots of theatrical people actresses Broadway dancers theater performers who wore makeup I didn't think my makeup to be that extreme or outstanding in any way Indeed I had seen far more interesting makeup than mine

Dissection of Desire Linda Leven, 2014-09-22 Master storyteller Linda Leven artfully breathes life into the current postmodern condition of relationships its subtleties and vagaries in an expansive page turner Dissection of Desire With her fluid prose and rare ability to turn the ordinary into something spectacular quite exotic erotic and profound Leven plummets the reader into a story of amorous intimacies unperceived wounds and the necessary agonies sustained in relationships whether familial platonic or amorous The drama revolves around four individuals as they unwittingly plunge into the tumult and dangers of the intimacy maelstrom Caroline an older sophisticated professional woman despite having a soul mate is bored and seeking breathtaking romance with a young man In his twilight years Dr Ramirez is dispirited in his burned out marriage but believes he is too old to alter his life until meeting sexy Claire a patient Unfortunately Nina his wife is an old fashioned woman who believes only marriage children and family bring fulfillment Into this mélange comes Ronny her son handsome sexy a sensualist who adores women but in his own aberrant warped manner Leven penetratingly paints and dissects in vivid colors a picture of tormented lives entangled in passionate but toxic perverted unhealthy relationships Although the lovers may strip themselves of their lacerating liaisons do they walk away unscathed and unscarred In this novel Leven flawlessly illuminates the imperceptible damage and mayhem sustained when people s lives and happiness depend upon fickle unreliable love from others The bold flaming shattering scenes portrayed may have one gasping for fresh air and sunshine
