Facilitating Youth-Led Book Clubs as Transformative and Inclusive Spaces Jody N. Polleck, 2022 Learn how to integrate book clubs into secondary school communities for transformation and inclusion so as to enhance and nurture students literacies along with their social and emotional development Using her extensive experiences with culturally neurologically and linguistically diverse students the author provides a rich resource that demonstrates how book clubs serve as critical places where adolescents can develop as readers while simultaneously working to build authentic relationships with their peers Polleck offers research and theories grounded in culturally sustaining pedagogies and healing centered engagements along with practical strategies for book club facilitators from developing specific student centered pedagogical approaches to embodying critical and humanizing dispositions Book Features Guidance based on the author's 25 years of experience as a facilitator and researcher of book clubs A focus on encouraging meaningful participation identity and community building and social justice An approach that prioritizes collaboration among teachers social workers counselors administrators parents and other school personnel Practical strategies that include facilitation suggestions sample lesson plans and reflective questioning techniques Engaging narratives that center the voices of students who have participated in book clubs An accompanying website with suggested reading lists teaching materials classroom activities and more

Book-Men, Book Clubs, and the Romantic Literary Sphere Ina Ferris, 2015-08-29 This book re-reads the tangled relations of book culture and literary culture in the early nineteenth century by restoring to view the figure of the bookman and the effaced history of his book clubs As outliers inserting themselves into the matrix of literary production rather than remaining within that of reception both provoked debate by producing writing and circulating books in ways that expanded fundamental points of literary orientation in lateral directions

not coincident with those of the literary sphere Deploying a wide range of historical archival and literary materials the study combines the history and geography of books cultural theory and literary history to make visible a bookish array of alternative networks genres and locations that were obscured by the literary sphere in establishing its authority as arbiter of the modern book

Telling Stories in Book Clubs Mary Kooy,2006-08-15 Mary Kooy's Telling Stories in Book Clubs gives us a compelling provocative and insightful picture of teachers reading talking and learning together By weaving together the responses of the novice teachers book club the experienced teachers book club and her own thoughtful analyses Kooy has documented what teacher learning looks like from the inside This book is a must read for all those interested in professional development across the lifespan Marilyn Cochran Smith Boston College Kooy's narrative about book clubs as learning communities makes a significant contribution to both research and practice Tying together reading teaching and learning the book gives us a superb example of how to nurture the intellectual and relational needs for continuous teacher growth and development The book is a must for teachers researchers and policymakers Ann Lieberman emeritus professor from Teachers College Columbia University and Senior Scholar at the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching Mary Kooy is a gifted writer and teacher She takes the obvious truth that we read books with other people and turns it into a compelling work of professional development We see the communities emerge and coalesce We see the self reflective questioning that is at the heart of all good teaching take shape through interaction and nurturing From the Foreword by Jo Anne Pagano Colgate University
