

Staff Meeting - self reflection activity

-Take out a post it note and write 5:1 on it. The most successful relations are those that have the 5:1 ratio of positive to negative comments. Place your post it note somewhere in your classroom where you will see it often. When you give a negative remark /raise your voice/ or put down a student, remind yourself that you now owe that child 5 positives to regain buy-in from him/her.

-Now take out a journal or writing paper. Reflect on these private and personal journal questions:

Would you want to be in your classroom?

If you could be a student in any other person on our team's classroom who would it be and why? Schedule an observation in their room.

Reflect on the noise level of your room. Is it loud, why is that? Because of you, your students, or your influence to make it soothing? What comes first the chicken or the egg? Do you think you've ever inadvertently found yourself engaged in a noise war with your class.

What makes a soothing classroom, how can you do one thing next week to make your environment more soothing?

Dostilio, Marshall Welch, 2019-01-30 This book is a companion guide to Campus Compact's successful publication The Community Engagement Professional in Higher Education In the first text Campus Compact Research Fellows led by award winning scholar practitioner Lina D Dostilio identified a core set of competencies needed by professionals charged with leading community engaged work on college campuses In this companion guide Dostilio teams up with Marshall Welch to build on the initial framework by offering guidance for how a community engagement professional CEP should conceptualize understand and develop their practice in each of the original competency areas Over 10 chapters the authors address questions for those brand new to the role and interested in how to start a community engagement unit or center or from people who are considering jobs doing the work on a campus or from individuals are trying to navigate the political environment on their campuses to expand and deepen their unit's reach The Guidebook offers a rich and deep dive breaking down the essential components of a professional's work. From mentoring faculty research leading campaigns to build civic engagement curriculum on campus to managing the staff who support community engagement units, Dostilio and Welch tackle the breadth of the CEP's work by drawing on key resources and their own decades of experience in the field. Throughout the book, readers will encounter Compass Points that call for personal reflection and engagement with the text. These interactive moments combine with end-of-chapter questions to prompt thinking about a CEP's critical commitments to create a powerful and engaging toolkit that will be essential for any person doing community and civic engagement work on campus.

Leading in Early Childhood Geraldine Davis, Gemma Ryder, 2016-08-08 Leadership in the early years is about using your knowledge, skills, personality, and experience to positively influence practice. Every practitioner has the capacity to lead and in doing so improve opportunities for children and their families. Examining the various roles of early years practitioners and the everyday challenges and opportunities they face, this book promotes leadership of early childhood practice by considering the following: Who the leaders are and what skills they require. The variety of ways a practitioner can lead within a setting. Key roles including the team leader and the key person. How to develop a culture of leadership. The importance of working with families and other professionals. Improving leading through reflective practice. Whether you are a room leader in an early childhood setting, needing support in your leadership skills, a manager of an early childhood business, a leader of a nursery, a leader of practice, or studying to become an early years practitioner, this book is ideal for helping you improve your leadership skills.

Narrative Medicine in Veterinary Practice Karen R. Fine, 2021-10-25 This is the first guide to Veterinary Narrative Medicine, a cutting-edge approach in human medicine with multiple applications in veterinary medicine. The text combines the latest research with numerous real-world examples and practical techniques to improve client communication, patient care, and veterinary well-being. Narrative Medicine maintains that a patient should be viewed as an individual rather than an example of a disease process and that this can be accomplished by using narrative. This book explores methods and theories from leaders in the human Narrative Medicine field while addressing topics unique to veterinary medicine. Readers will gain tools to help navigate difficult conversations and situations in clinical practice, including those involving the end of life. Narrative Medicine in Veterinary Practice also addresses the important issue of veterinary wellness. The ability to view the veterinarian's own stories and those of clients and patients as narratives may help practitioners maintain both emotional and work place boundaries as well as decrease burnout and compassion fatigue. The book describes basic techniques to promote self
