Luvella's Promise Joan Foley Baier,1999-04 The bear cubs were growing Daddy said they had gained at least a pound each They were also taking a lot of my time which bothered me But Reeder and I took care of Princess and Blackie every day and could even pet them and take them for little walks When we ran the cubs would run right along with us Once when I tripped and fell Princess rolled right over me Then Blackie lumbered beside us and rolled on Princess Reeder jumped right in and the four of us bears and Reeder and I rolled and ran rolled and ran Reeder and I hollered and laughed and the bear cubs barked and growled playfully Luvella thought making a promise and being dedicated to fulfilling it were enough Is it really possible for an 11 year old to open her own store Her love for her family and for the mountain where she has grown up answer yes anything is possible But with a theme of loss weaving through her life Luvella discovers that the very people she loves innocently create the major setbacks to her success
