The Ultimate World War Two Trivia Book: Unbelievable Facts, Extraordinary Accounts and Tall Tales from the Second World War M. J. Trow, Richard Denham, 2022-12-15 The Second World War ended over seventy five years ago and yet it holds a lasting fascination for millions Most school children worldwide have studied it but it is unlikely that they would have learned any of the fascinating facts to be found in The Ultimate World War Two Trivia Book Funny heart breaking and downright borderline unbelievable the snippets in this book are perfect for dropping into conversations to amaze and amuse your friends You might also find yourself becoming the king or queen of the pub trivia quiz when you have knowledge of Winkie the Pigeon the Battle of the Tennis Court and the Bee Bombs of Prester John One thing to be careful of never ever lend this book to anyone it is totally addictive and you will never see it again Many books of trivia push the envelope and the facts inside can t be trusted This is not something to worry about with The Ultimate World War Two Trivia Book because it comes from the pens of Richard Denham Robin Hood English Outlaw and Arthur Shadow of a God and M J Trow The Black Book and Enemies of the State Just because a fact sounds unlikely doesn t mean it isn t true and you can amaze your friends and colleagues as well as clean up at the Dog and Duck by memorizing absolutely any of these facts presented in short snippets for either devouring all at once or for browsing in the loo Complete with a whistle stop tour of the causes course and consequences of the war by M J Trow who to quote a recent reviewer could make a shopping list interesting this book is a quick way to learn more than you ever thought there was to know about the weird and wonderful side of World War Two

No Kids Allowed Michelle Ann Abate, 2020-10-13 Children s literature isn t just for children anymore This original study explores the varied forms and roles of children s literature when it s written for adults What do Adam Mansbach s Go the F k to Sleep and Barbara Park s MA There s Nothing to Do Here have in common These large format picture books are decidedly intended for parents rather than children In No Kids Allowed Michelle Ann Abate examines a constellation of books that form a paradoxical new genre children s literature for adults Distinguishing these books from YA and middle grade fiction that appeals to adult readers Abate argues that there is something unique about this phenomenon Principally defined by its form and audience children's literature Abate demonstrates engages with more than mere nostalgia when recast for grown up readers Abate examines how board books coloring books bedtime stories and series detective fiction written and published specifically for adults question the boundaries of genre and challenge the assumption that adulthood and childhood are mutually exclusive Struwwelhitler Robert Spence,1943 Struwwelhitler Dr. Schrecklichkeit,2013

Struwwelhitler Robert Spence,Philip Spence,1997 Learning how to Feel Ute Frevert,Pascal Eitler,Stephanie Olsen,2014 This volume demonstrates how children through their reading matter were provided with learning tools to navigate their emotional lives presenting this in the context of changing social political cultural and gender agendas the building of nations subjects and citizens and the forging of moral and religious values Struwwelhitler Schrecklichkeit (Doktor),Robert Spence,1941 Struwwelhitler Robert Spence,Philip Spence,1945 Pictured Worlds Leonard S. Marcus,2023-03-28 Pictured Worlds is a lavishly illustrated large format reference book highlighting the work of 101 top children's illustrators In Pictured Worlds renowned historian Leonard S Marcus shares his incomparable knowledge of illustrated children's books which came of age in the 18th century when John Newbery set a model for tailoring books to the interests and capabilities of young readers and went on to become a global cultural phenomenon The author of more than 25 award winning books Marcus here highlights an international roster of 101 artists of the past 200 years whose touchstone achievements collectively chart the major trends and turning points in the history of children's book illustration While some illustrators explored in this lively volume John Tenniel Maurice Sendak have become household names Marcus's wide ranging survey also shines a light on several lesser known figures whose unique contributions merit a closer look The result is a sweeping chronicle of a vibrant art form and cultural driver that has touched the lives of literate peoples everywhere More than 500 illustrations showcase landmark books from Great Britain the United States France Germany Austria Italy Sweden Czech Republic Russia Japan China Korea Bulgaria Argentina Cameroon and more Each illustrated entry comprises an artist's biography and career overview and a deep dive into a pivotal book and its legacy Featured books include Ivan Bilibin's The Tale of the Golden Cockerel Leo Lionni's Inch by Inch Richard Doyle's In Fairyland Kveta Pacovsk's One Five Many Helen Oxenbury's We're Going on a Bear Hunt Anno Mitsumasa's Anno's Journey and Zhu Cheng Liang's A New Year's Reunion as well as the books that introduced such iconic characters as Alice Max Struwwelpeter the Little Prince and Winnie the Pooh At once a celebration of illustrated children's books and an essential reference work Pictured Worlds encapsulates in the author's words the special nature of the illustrated children's book as a cultural enterprise that is at once a rewarding art form a bridge across cultures and a ladder between generations Cinema and Social Change in Germany and Austria Gabriele Mueller,James M. Skidmore,2012-09-01 During the last decade contemporary German and Austrian cinema has grappled with new social and economic realities The cinema of consensus a term coined to describe the popular and commercially oriented filmmaking of the 1990s has given way to a more heterogeneous and critical cinema culture Making the greatest artistic impact since the 1970s contemporary cinema is responding to questions of globalization and the effects of societal and economic change on the individual This book explores this trend by investigating different thematic and aesthetic strategies and alternative methods of film production and distribution Functioning both as a product and as an agent of globalizing processes this new cinema mediates and influences important political and social debates The contributors illuminate these processes through their analyses of cinema s intervention in discourses on such concepts as national cinema the effects of globalization on social mobility and the emergence of a global culture The essays illustrate the variety and inventiveness of contemporary Austrian and German filmmaking and highlight the complicated interdependencies between global developments and local specificities They confirm a broader trend toward a more complex critical and formally diverse cinematic scene This book offers insights into the strategies employed by German and Austrian filmmakers to position themselves between the commercial pressures of the film industry and the desire to mediate or even attempt to affect social change It will be of interest to scholars in film studies cultural studies and European studies

Weird War Two: Strange Facts and Tales from the World's Weirdest Conflict M. J. Trow, Richard Denham, 2020-08-13 Welcome to the wonderfully weird World War Two The Second World War is the bloodiest on record It was the first total war in history when civilians men women and children were in the front line as never before With so many millions involved the rumour machine went into overdrive tall stories built on fear of the unknown With so much at stake boffins battled with each other to build ever more bizarre weapons to out gun the enemy Nazi Germany alone had so many government orchestrated foibles that they would be funny if they were not so tragic Parachuting sheep Pilot pigeons Rifles that fire round corners Men who never were You will find them all in these pages the weird wonderful and barely believable of World War Two
