good friends	homeless	hope for the future	into debt

I live in London and every day I walk past the same group of (1) homeless people. I'd never really thought about them, at least not very much. I never stopped to think about where they had come from or why they were living on the streets. I guess I took some things for granted, like always having a (2) roof over my head, having enough (3) money in my pocket and never having to worry about having (4) something to eat. And then suddenly everything changed. One minute I had a (5) steady job and the next I found myself out of work. I quickly got (6) into debt and the next thing I knew I lost my home and found myself out on the street. Fortunately I had some (7) good friends and my family were there to help me. Now I have a new job and some (8) hope for the future, but every time I pass that group of homeless people on the street I remember how close I was to joining them and I stop to give them some money and talk to them a little.
