Toni Morrison

Toni Morrison was a famous American writer who touched the hearts of many with her powerful stories. Born in Lorain, Ohio, in 1931, Morrison wrote books that explored the history and struggles of African American people. Her writing often focused on themes like slavery, racism, and identity. One of her most famous works is "Beloved", a novel about a woman named Sethe, who is haunted by the ghost of her dead daughter. This book is a deep reflection of the emotional scars left by slavery. Morrison's style of writing was unique, combining poetic language with the harsh realities of life. Morrison's achievements are not only seen in her books but also in the awards she won. In 1993, she became the first African American woman to win the Nobel Prize in Literature, which recognized her contribution to literature and society. She was also a teacher, editor, and activist. Though she passed away in 2019, her works are still inspiring readers and encouraging people to reflect on the importance of history and understanding each other.

Strangely Rhetorical Jimmy Butts, 2023-05-01 Strangely Rhetorical establishes the groundwork for strangeness as a lens under the broader interdisciplinary umbrella of rhetoric and composition and shares a series of rhetorical devices for practically thinking about how compositions are made unique Jimmy Butts explores how strange novel weird and interesting texts work and offers insight into how and why these forms can be invented created and stylized to generate the effective delivery of rhetorical messages in fun divergent ways

Using a new theoretical framework that strangeness is inherent within all rhetorical interactions and is potentially useful Butts demonstrates how rhetoric is always already coming from an Other offering an ethical context for how defamiliarized texts work with different audiences Applying examples of seven figures for composing in and across written aural visual electronic and spatial texts the WAVES of media Butts shows how divergence is possible in all sorts of refigured multimodal ways Strangely Rhetorical rethinks what exactly rhetoric is and does considering the ways that strange compositions help rhetors connect across a broad range of networks in a world haunted by distance This is a book about strange rhetoric for makers and creatives for students and teachers and for composers of all sorts Black Aliveness, or A Poetics of Being

Kevin Quashie,2021-02-05 In Black Aliveness or A Poetics of Being Kevin Quashie imagines a Black world in which one encounters Black being as it is rather than only as it exists in the shadow of anti Black violence As such he makes a case for Black aliveness even in the face of the persistence of death in Black life and Black study Centrally Quashie theorizes aliveness through the aesthetics of poetry reading poetic inhabitation in Black feminist literary texts by Lucille Clifton Audre Lorde June Jordan Toni Morrison and Evie Shockley among others showing how their philosophical and creative thinking constitutes worldmaking This worldmaking conceptualizes Blackness as capacious relational beyond the normative terms of recognition Blackness as a condition of oneness Reading for poetic aliveness then becomes a means of exploring Black being rather than nonbeing and animates the ethical question how to be In this way Quashie offers a Black feminist philosophy of being which is nothing less than a philosophy of the becoming of the Black world Collaborative Learning and Writing

New Critical Essays on Toni Morrison's God Help the Child Alice Knox Eaton,Maxine Lavon Montgomery,Shirley A. Stave,2020-07-23 Contributions by Alice Knox Eaton Mar Gallego Maxine Lavon Montgomery Evelyn Jaffe Schreiber Shirley A Stave Justine Tally Susana Vega Gonz lez and Anissa Wardi In her eleventh novel God Help the Child Toni Morrison returned to several of the signature themes explored in her previous work pernicious beauty standards for women particularly African American women mother child relationships racism and colorism and child sexual abuse God Help the Child published in 2015 is set in the contemporary period unlike all of her previous novels The contemporary setting is ultimately incidental to the project of the novel however as with Morrison's other work the story takes on mythic qualities and the larger than life themes lend themselves to allegorical and symbolic readings that resonate in light of both contemporary and historical issues New Critical Essays on Toni Morrison's God Help the Child Race Culture and History a collection of eight essays by both seasoned Morrison scholars as well as new and rising scholars takes on the novel in a nuanced and insightful analysis interpreting it in relation to Morrison's earlier work as well as locating it within ongoing debates in literary and other academic disciplines engaged with African American literature The volume is divided into three sections The first focuses on trauma both the pain and suffering caused by neglect and abuse as well as healing and understanding The second section considers narrative choices concentrating on experimentation and reader engagement The third section turns a comparative eye to Morrison's fictional canon from her debut work of fiction The Bluest Eye until the present These essays build on previous studies of Morrison's novels and deepen readers understanding of both her last novel and her larger literary output

Critical Companion to Toni Morrison Carmen Gillespie, 2007 Toni Morrison winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1993 is perhaps the most important living American author This work examines Morrison's life and writing featuring critical analyses of her work and themes as well as entries on related topics and relevant people places and influences

Loving Through Enmity Marvin E. Wickware, Jr., 2025-05-20 Wickware responds to the failure of Christian antiracist work to translate love of the enemy into societal transformation Centering a structural idea of enmity he explains how love of the enemy involves embracing our need for those whose interests are opposed to ours under white supremacy engaging in mutual aid and committing to accountability

American Literature and the Long Downturn Dan Sinykin, 2020-02-20 Apocalypse shapes the experience of millions of Americans Not because they face imminent cataclysm however true this is but because apocalypse is a story they tell themselves It offers a way out of an otherwise irredeemably unjust world Adherence to it obscures that it is a story rather than a description of reality And it is old Since its origins among Jewish writers in the first centuries BCE apocalypse has recurred as a tempting and available form through which to express a sense of hopelessness Why has it appeared with such force in the US now What does it mean This book argues that to find the meaning of our apocalyptic times we need to look at the economics of the last five decades from the end of the postwar boom After historian Robert Brenner this volume calls this period the long downturn Though it might seem abstract the economics of the long downturn worked its way into the most intimate experiences of everyday life including the fear that there would be no tomorrow and this fear takes the form of neoliberal apocalypse The varieties of neoliberal apocalypse horror at the nation's commitment to a racist exclusionary economic system resentment about threats to white supremacy apprehension that the nation has unleashed a violence that will consume it claustrophobia within the limited scripts of neoliberalism suffocation under the weight of debt together form the discordant chord that hums under

American life in the twenty first century For many of us for different reasons it feels like the end is coming soon and this book explores how we came to this and what it has meant for literature

The Intertextuality of Black American Spoken Word and African Griot Tradition Tammie Jenkins, 2025-01-15 Griots in Africa are considered among the first spoken word poets as they used this oral tradition to preserve their society's cultural artifacts and traditions These African oratory institutions underwent a transformative evolution during the Transatlantic Slave Trade and in the New World many displaced African born people continued the griot tradition expanding this practice to include their lived experiences and social realities hence modernizing spoken word poetry The Intertextuality of Black American Spoken Word and African Griot Tradition From the Motherland to America by Tammie Jenkins examines these relationships to show how spoken word poetry incorporates musical sampling to connect with historical events politics and African diasporic discourses from emancipation through the present Using works by Meshell Ndegeocello and Ursula Rucker Jenkins analyzes how they reimagine history politics and the arts to create counternarratives that challenge larger accepted social narratives In doing so their approach demonstrates how Black American spoken word poets communicate and build reciprocal relationships with their listening audiences across intersections of race gender class and geography

New Perspectives on Community and the Modernist Subject María J. López, Paula Martín Salván, Gerardo Rodríguez Salas, 2017-11-02 New Perspectives on Community and the Modernist Subject Finite Singular Exposed offers new approaches to the modernist subject and its relation to community With a non exclusive focus on narrative the essays included provide innovative and theoretically informed readings of canonical modernist authors including James Conrad Joyce Woolf Lawrence Mansfield Stein Barnes and Faulkner instead of Eliot as well as of non canonical and late modernists Stapledon Rhys Beckett Isherwood and Baldwin instead of Marsden This volume examines the context of new dialectico metaphysical approaches to subjectivity and individuality and of recent philosophical debate on community encouraged by critics such as Alain Badiou Jean Luc Nancy Maurice Blanchot Giorgio Agamben Roberto Esposito and Jacques Derrida among others of which a fresh re definition of the modernist subject and community remains to be made one that is likely to enrich the field of new Modernist studies This volume will fill this gap presenting a re definition of the subject by complementing community oriented approaches to modernist fiction through a dialectical counterweight that underlines a conception of the modernist subject as finite singular and exposed and its relation to inorganic and inoperative communities

James Baldwin Bill V. Mullen, 2019-09-20 A scrupulous biography Publishers Weekly Fresh incisive and uplifting Kirkus If you want to know the real Baldwin this is the book to read Robin D G Kelley author of Thelonious Monk James Baldwin is an icon of liberation who created some of the most important literary works of his time including the novels Go Tell It on the Mountain and If Beale Street Could Talk Here Bill V Mullen celebrates the life of the great African American writer and activist As a lifelong anti imperialist black queer advocate and feminist James Baldwin was a passionate chronicler of the rise of the Civil Rights Movement the US war against Vietnam the Palestinian liberation struggle and the rise of LGBTQ rights Mullen pays homage to Baldwin's truly radical approach to his life writing and activism Constantly in struggle for an anti racist emancipated world Baldwin's philosophy and politics were ahead of their time predicting many of today's movements such as Black Lives Matter Bill V Mullen is Professor of American Studies at Purdue University He is the author of W E B Du Bois Revolutionary Across the Color Line amongst other books Eudora Welty, Whiteness, and Race Harriet Pollack, 2013-01-01 Faced with Eudora Welty's preference for the oblique in literary performances some have assumed that Welty was not concerned with issues of race or even that she was perhaps ambivalent toward racism This collection counters those assumptions as it examines Welty's handling of race the color line and Jim Crow segregation and sheds new light on her views about the patterns insensitivities blindness and atrocities of whiteness Contributors to this volume show that Welty addressed whiteness and race in her earliest stories her photography and her first novel Delta Wedding In subsequent work including The Golden Apples The Optimist's Daughter and her memoir One Writer's Beginnings she made the color line and white privilege visible revealing the gaping distances between lives lived in shared space but separated by social hierarchy and segregation Even when black characters hover in the margins of her fiction they point readers toward complex lives and the black body is itself full of meaning in her work Several essays suggest that Welty represented race like gender and power as a performance scripted by whiteness Her black characters in particular recognize whiteface and blackface as performances especially comical when white characters are unaware of their role play Eudora Welty Whiteness and Race also makes clear that Welty recognized white material advantage and black economic deprivation as part of a cycle of race and poverty in America and that she connected this history to lives on either side of the color line to relationships across it and to an uneasy hierarchy of white classes within the presumed monolith of whiteness Contributors Mae Miller Claxton Susan V Donaldson Julia Eichelberger Sarah Ford Jean C Griffith Rebecca Mark Suzanne Marrs Donnie McMahan David McWhirter Harriet Pollack Keri Watson Patricia Yaeger Safeguarding the Stranger Jayme R Reaves, 2017-08-31 In our troubled world protective hospitality is tragically necessary and requires informed shared action and belief on behalf of the threatened other In Safeguarding the Stranger Jayme R Reaves argues that protective hospitality and its faith based foundations as seen in the Abrahamic traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam merit greater theological attention Reaves shows that the practice of protective hospitality in Christianity can be enhanced by a better understanding of Jewish and Muslim practices of hospitality as well as of their codes and etiquettes related to honour Safeguarding the Stranger draws on a contextual and political theological approach informed by liberation and feminist theologies as viewed through the lens of a co operative and complementary theological view which is influenced by inter religious Abrahamic and hospitable approaches to dialogue forecasting the positive role that religions can play in resolving conflicts
