Handbook of Open Universities Around the World Sanjaya Mishra, Santosh Panda, 2025-06-27 The Handbook of Open Universities Around the World is the first collection to provide a comprehensive and critical overview of open universities internationally Over 80 open universities have been established across five continents to provide a distance orientated class inclusive and high quality education for learners left behind by existing formal systems for higher and continuing education and lifelong learning This mission has been continually reshaped by major developments in open education learning technologies and online social networking as well as by the evolution of specific concerns such as the massification of education employability financial trends artificial intelligence and development agendas on the regional national and global levels This landmark volume analyzes and reflects on the planning organization management pedagogic skilling and employability and accreditation dimensions of 47 open universities in relation to their national and institutional contexts the internationalization of education and the integration of advanced learning technologies Featuring contributions by internationally recognized scholars practitioners and educational administrators this authoritative resource provides insights into the business model finances operations instructional systems enrollment patterns learner supports quality assurance professional development and more of today's open universities Through historical trajectories institutional profiles case studies lessons learned and best practices this book provides rich analytical perspectives on the status and challenges of single mode distance learning universities as an educational phenomenon while unpacking the premise of openness itself This Handbook is primarily written for planners managers administrators instructional designers and teaching faculty at single mode distance teaching universities who are seeking to sustain their institutions in a period of rapid change government policymakers training organizations technology providers and education think tanks who are in need of authentic and research based information on technology enabled learning modeled by open universities around the world and graduate students teaching faculty and scholars who are affiliated with online and distance education learning design and technology higher education planning and management adult education and lifelong learning and education policy and future studies Chapter 54 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Watch a stimulating discussion between the book's volume editors and Sir John Daniel and Professor Stephen Murgatroyd on YouTube

Managing Digital Records in Africa Mpho Ngoepe, 2022-05-23 Managing Digital Records in Africa draws on the research work of the InterPARES Trust ITrust project that investigated interrelated archival issues focusing on legal analysis infrastructure trust authentication and education within the African context This research focused book provides a legal analysis and systematic assessment of how African institutions manage digital records in four countries i.e. Botswana Kenya South Africa and Zimbabwe It also examines the extent to which records are managed using Internet based applications trust in such records and digital record authentication to support the auditing process Finally it provides a curriculum analysis in digital records at institutions of higher learning in 38 African countries The book's case studies illustrate the threads of discussion which span the ITrust domains of legislation infrastructure authentication trust and education in archives and records management The book can be used as a premier reference source by private and public organizations researchers educators archivists records managers and postgraduate students to make informed decisions about digital records records management systems cloud based services authenticating records and identifying universities on the continent that offer archival programmes The book may also find expression to practitioners in other fields such as law and auditing Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience The Globalization of Legal Education Bryant G. Garth, Gregory C. Shaffer, 2022 Legal academics and practitioners in recent decades increasingly emphasize the so called globalization of legal education The diffusion of the Juris Doctor JD degree to Australia Hong Kong Japan and South Korea as well as the advent of a very similar Juris Master JM degree in China and a shift in the late 1980s and beyond to a new US influenced format in India exemplify shifts toward US legal education practices Flood 2014 The global and Americanizing trend is evident on the web sites of law schools around the globe with many law schools competing to be the most global in terms of their faculty curricula teaching methods and students Less pronounced but related to the literature on legal globalization is that on transnationalization and transnational processes which is a strong component of the move toward globalization in legal education As this book shows if we look to see what is celebrated as part of globalized law schools and faculties we see increased cross border flows of professors and students teaching of transnational legal subjects development of particular forms of teaching practice such as legal clinics explicit focus on transnational rankings and transnationalized scholarly communities sharing teaching and research methods and approaches across domains of law Preventive Medicine, An Issue of Physician Assistant Clinics, E-Book Stephanie L. Neary, 2021-11-26 In this issue of Physician Assistant Clinics guest editor Stephanie L Neary brings her considerable expertise to the topic of Preventative Medicine Provides in depth clinical reviews on the latest updates in Preventative Medicine providing actionable insights for clinical practice Presents the latest information on this timely focused topic under the leadership of experienced editors in the field Authors synthesize and distill the latest research and practice guidelines to create these timely topic based reviews Education and Elitism Conrad Hughes, 2021-04-26 Education and Elitism discusses polemical debates around privilege private schools elitist universities equal access to education and underlying notions of fairness The overarching question that runs through the book is about the future of education worldwide how can schools and universities tread the tightrope between access and quality This book investigates the philosophical positions that characterize elitism and anti elitism to establish three types meritocratic plutocratic and cultural These types of elitism and their counter positions are used as reference points throughout the book s analysis of successive educational themes The conclusion leads to suggestions that bridge the worlds of elitism and egalitarianism worldwide The book covers critical questions related to the sociology and philosophy of education with particular focus on contemporary disruptors to education such as the COVID 19 pandemic and protest movements for social justice With an attempt to offer readers an objective overview this book will be an excellent compendium for students academics and researchers of the sociology of education education policy and comparative education It will also be of interest to school leaders university provosts and professionals working in curriculum design

Reflections on Postgraduate Supervision and Academic Development in an African Distance Education Environment Tennyson

Mgutshini, Thenjiwe Meyiwa, Amile Mavundla, 2024-03-05 Within postgraduate studies student non completion attrition and failure rates range from 29% to 65% These unacceptably high failure rates have been attributed to wide ranging influences Even so there is consensus that postgraduate supervision represents a critical enabling vehicle for student success

represent a significant panacea to many of Africa's social and economic skills Transforming Missiology Fohle Lygunda li-M, 2018-02-28 Dr Fohle Lygunda li M provides a thorough analysis of missiological teaching in theological institutions in Africa with special reference to ten Christian universities in the Democratic Republic of the Congo His detailed examination of current teaching of mission theory and practice builds a solid foundation for the articulation of a new paradigm of missiological education In this book Dr Lygunda presents the case for a transformed approach to raising up seminarians who are equipped to lead indigenous missional churches that will fulfil the Great Commission in their own communities and beyond their national borders Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education Wisdom, Sherrie, Leavitt, Lynda, Bice, Cynthia, 2019-06-28 In comparing one public school to another discussions frequently include talk concerning the socioeconomics of a school or district which then leads to talk about the advantages that one socioeconomic setting has over another Educators tend to agree that low academic achievement frequently associated with a low socioeconomic status is a characteristic difficult to resolve for a population of school children The Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education is a critical reference source that provides insights into social influences on school and educational settings Featuring an array of topics including online learning social mobility and teacher preparation this book is excellent for educational leaders educational researchers teachers academicians administrators instructional designers and teacher preparation programs Active Aging and Disease Management Helena Canhão, Jaime C. Branco, Giuseppe Liotta, 2019-01-11 Population aging and the associated burden of chronic diseases are one of the main challenges in public health worldwide This Research Topic on Active Aging and Disease Management provides a comprehensive overview of population aging through fourteen comprehensive papers Chapter 1 discusses an overview of health systems in active and healthy aging while Chapter 2 focuses on the role of lifestyles exercise and new technologies Chapter 3 debates psychological and cognitive issues in aging and finally in Chapter 4 an older people self assessment is proposed and the role of communities and supporters are highlighted We think that real social and health care integration at community level could be the key point to deliver effective health promotion and preventive intervention Enjoy the reading Global Development of the Community College Model Carmen L. McCrink, Heidi Whitford, Natasha C. Stubbs, 2017-03-13 While the community college is a longstanding institutional type within the U S the success of this model has recently garnered international attention As countries outside the U S grapple with issues regarding access and affordability of higher education opportunity the concept of the community college has gained traction This issue explores The global expansion and development of the community college model in various countries and regions around the world Insights into the establishment and sustainability of these institutions in other countries through research and analysis and Case studies that focus on the development and implementation process of community colleges amid various social political and economic contexts This is the 177th volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Essential to the professional libraries of presidents vice presidents deans and other leaders in today's open door institutions New Directions for Community Colleges provides expert guidance in meeting the challenges of their distinctive and expanding educational mission

Mobility, Data and Learner Agency in Networked Learning Nina Bonderup Dohn, Petar Jandrić, Thomas Ryberg, Maarten de Laat, 2020-03-26 The chapters in this book are based on selected peer reviewed research papers presented at the 11th biennial Networked Learning Conference NLC 2018 held in Zagreb and were chosen as exemplars of cutting edge research on networked learning The chapters are organized into three main sections 1 Aspects of mobility for Networked Learning in a global world 2 Use and misuse of algorithms and learning analytics 3 Understanding and empowering learners The three main sections are flanked by chapters which introduce and reflect on Networked Learning as epistemic practice The concluding chapter draws out perspectives from the chapters and discusses emerging issues The book focuses on the nature of learning and interactions as an important characteristic sought out by researchers and practitioners in this field

ICEL 2018 13th International Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala, 2018-07-05

Handbook of Historical Studies in Education Tanya Fitzgerald, 2020-04-03 This book offers an in depth historiographical and comparative analysis of prominent theoretical and methodological debates in the field Across each of the sections contributors will draw on specific case studies to illustrate the origins debates and tensions in the field and overview new trends directions and developments Each section includes an introduction that provides an overview of the theme and the overall emphasis within the section In addition each section has a concluding chapter that offers a critical and comparative analysis of the national case studies presented As a Handbook the emphasis is on deeper consideration of key issues rather than a more superficial and broader sweep The book offers researchers postgraduate and higher degree students as well as those teaching in this field a definitive text that identifies and debates key historiographical and methodological issues The intent is to encourage comparative historiographical perspectives of the nominated issues that overview the main theoretical and methodological debates and to propose new directions for the field
