SLADE, 2000-06-15 As the electronic era blurs the boundaries between conventional and distance education and between remote and in person library users the literature on library issues and distance learning has proliferated immensely This work helps you keep abreast of the phenomenal changes taking place in the field of education and the issues they raise for libraries Identifying and describing more than 750 works published since its precursor was completed in 1995 the book provides a comprehensive record of the current literature about distance and open learning in post secondary education programs The authors cover all types of materials from around the world ranging from brief news items to major research reports and dissertations In this edition special emphasis is given to web based distance education Access is provided through four indexes author geographical institution and subject and indexes are cumulative from the previous two bibliographies Transformative Approaches to Sustainable Development at Universities Walter Leal Filho, 2014-10-06 This book documents and disseminates experiences from a wide range of universities across the five continents which showcase how the principles of sustainable development may be incorporated as part of university programmes and present transformatory projects and programmes showing how sustainability can be implemented across disciplines Sustainability in a higher education context is a fast growing field Thousands of universities across the world have signed declarations or have committed themselves to integrate the principles of sustainable development in their activities teaching research and extension and many more will follow

Documenting Forensic Linguistics in the African Context Monwabisi K. Ralarala, Russell H. Kaschula, Zakeera Docrat, Emmanuel Satia, Karien van den Berg, 2025-06-30 The field of forensic linguistics which integrates the fields of language and the law is not only a necessity in Africa but also a lifeblood in the entire administration of justice Hopefully the emergence of this field and the inroads it is bound to make on the multilingual and culturally diverse continent shall ameliorate the adverse effects of the African diaspora given the high density of languages and the polarity of its people Notwithstanding the noble intentions of administrators of justice the language and interpretation translation barriers which often hinder the desired results This is not only prevalent in the criminal justice system but also rears its ugly head in civil trials Awareness of such shortcomings must be heightened especially among presiding officers legal practitioners and law enforcement officers The series of books on Forensic Linguistics Language and Law should not be for the preserve and benefit of scholars in this field but also be distributed and promoted among all for the benefit of the wider community especially in the legal field Advocate Babalo Metu Also Acting Judge of the Eastern Cape Division and the Labour Court Documenting Forensic Linguistics in the African Context breaks new ground in exploring these critical questions Through 14 comprehensive chapters leading scholars examine the intricate relationship between language and law in Africa s multilingual courtrooms From police interview models to witness statement analysis from authorship identification to the challenges of training forensic linguists this volume offers unprecedented insights into the complexities of legal linguistics in African contexts This groundbreaking work an essential reading for legal practitioners linguists scholars and anyone interested in the intersection of language law and justice in contemporary Africa arrives at a crucial moment as forensic linguistics emerges as a vital field across Africa Rich in both theoretical foundations and practical applications it sets a new agenda for understanding how language shapes justice in multilingual multicultural societies Professor Felix Banda Linguistics Department University of the Western Cape South Africa

The Linguaging of Higher Education in the Global South Sinfree Makoni, Cristine G. Severo, Ashraf Abdelhay, Anna Kaiper-Marquez, 2022-01-06 By foregrounding language practices in educational settings this timely volume offers a postcolonial critique of the languaging of higher education and considers how Southern epistemologies can be used to further the decolonization of post secondary education in the Global South Offering a range of contributions from diverse and minoritized scholars based in countries including South Africa Rwanda Sudan Qatar Turkey Portugal Sweden India and Brazil The Linguaging of Higher Education in the Global South problematizes the use of language in various areas of higher education Chapters demonstrate both subtle and explicit ways in which the language of pedagogy scholarship policy and participation endorse and privilege Western constructs and knowledge production and utilize Southern theories and epistemologies to offer an alternative way forward practice and research which applies and promotes Southern epistemologies and local knowledges The volume confronts issues including integrationism epistemic solidarity language policy and ideology multilingualism and the increasing use of technology in institutions of higher education This innovative book will be of interest to researchers scholars and postgraduate students in the fields of higher education applied linguistics and multicultural education Those with an interest in the decolonization of education and language will find the book of particular use

Empowering Students and Maximising Inclusiveness and Equality through ICT, 2021-04-06 Access to and participation in education are critical issues in contemporary South Africa Awareness of inclusiveness and equality is not recent having possibly first been described in the dawn of the millennium by the United Nations Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization UNESCO Drawing from the current framings in the SADC education systems the contributors argue that ICT has a key role to play in transformation
