recipes with the latest flavor trends that will put the life into your grilling This sauce cookbook contains the best recipes from all around the globe creating sweet or savory dishes dipping sauces toppings Texas dallas Italian and classic French sauces gravy to meat and poultry So grab yourself a spoon and start making your sauce 5 Minute Sauces Hans Meyer,2021-08-14 The value of the sauce in cooking can hardly be overestimated Sauces complement the main course by revealing the flavor of its ingredients Sauces stimulate appetite improving the digestibility of the product Therefore sauces often contain bright condiments and spices including garlic ginger mustard nutmeg cloves vanillin etc Aromatic oils enhance the process of food digestion Sauces are served separately with the dish or used in the cooking process Under high temperature conditions the sauce acquires new qualities impregnating and merging with the aromas of the main products Often fish meat and vegetables are baked and stewed with sauce Most sauces need thickening For this flour starch as well as mashed carrots beets white cabbage and red currants are used since they have a high emulsifying ability All sauces are distinguished between cold and hot depending on the dish The sauce is an addition to the main dish so it must be prepared very carefully observing the nuances and proportions in the recipe so as not to spoil the aroma and taste of the final product Every dish that deserves the attention of the gourmet needs its own twist memorable flavor characteristics which will make it unique Food supplemented with sauce becomes more aromatic more stimulating the appetite and even helps to improve the functioning of the stomach Sauces will not only make your dish more attractive in appearance but also diversify its taste and aroma The same culinary product seasoned with different sauces is perceived in completely different ways Any meat vegetables or rice served with different sauces takes on a whole new flavor It is widely believed that people initially began to use sauces only because they had to constantly eat dishes prepared from one product take for example rice In order to change the taste sensations oriental culinary experts were allegedly not afraid to experiment mixing spices and seasonings Using various sauces and spices the chef gives the main product of the dish one or another taste and aroma preserving or weakening the original taste qualities of the products For example rusk and egg butter sauce is served with asparagus cauliflower steam sauce meat white with hollandaise sauce for chicken Many vegetables are cooked with dairy sauces to enhance the flavor and nutritional value of the food Thus the sauce is designed to emphasize the main quality of the dish or to bring a new own motive into it Sauces make it possible to prepare dishes from the same products different in appearance and taste The correct selection of sauces for dishes is of great importance since the taste appearance largely depends on it and Modern cooking is simply unthinkable without sauces gravy and all kinds of dressings We add them to our favorite homemade dishes and order them in cafes they are served with gourmet dishes in restaurants and with the simplest and fastest snacks Sometimes we don't even think about what exactly the dressing makes our favorite dish so uniquely tasty
