The Best Australian Stories 2014:

Maxine Beneba Clarke is an Australian writer of Afro Caribbean descent. The Best Australian Stories 2014 Amanda Lohrey, 2014 In The Best Australian Stories 2014 Patrick White Award-winning author Amanda Lohrey selects the outstanding short fiction of the year. Sometimes fantastical, sometimes raw and always a shot of adrenaline to the mind and heart, this collection features exciting new voices alongside the established and admired. The edges of reality blur in a corporate lawyer's tale of working in a 1200-storey glass tower. A prized coffee table becomes the focus of a father's anxieties and frustrations. Tense and fractured lines of communication shape the life of an interpreter on Christmas Island. Imaginative, remarkable, intimate, this unmissable anthology celebrates the art of consummate storytelling. The art of the story is mostly about the journey and the economy of means with which the writers here carry us a great distance; it is at times breathtaking.

Amanda Lohrey Something Special, Something Rare Black Inc., 2015-03-31 Something Special, Something Rare presents outstanding short fiction by Australia's finest female writers. These are tales of love, secrets, doubt, and torment the everyday and the extraordinary. A sleepy town is gripped by delusory grief after the movie being filmed there wraps and leaves. A lingering heartbreak is replayed on Facebook. An ordinary family walks a shaky line between hopelessness and redemption. Brilliant, shocking, and profound, these tales will leave you reeling in ways that only a great short story can. Kate Grenville, Mandy Sayer, Penni Russon, Favel Parrett, Tegan Bennett Daylight, Sonya Hartnett, Isabelle Li, Gillian Essex, Brenda Walker, Gillian Mears, Fiona MacFarlane, Joan London, Karen Hitchcock, Charlotte Wood, Tara June Winch, Cate Kennedy, Alice Pung, Anna Krien, Delia Falconer, Rebekah Clarkson. This collection is a fantastic line-up of some of Australia's best writers who simply happen to be women; the themes explored are as wide-ranging and eclectic as the writers. Sunday Age. All the stories here justify that use of outstanding in the collection's subtitle. If pushed to choose one standout for me, it is Favel Parrett's Lebanon, which in its three pages manages to convey more emotion than some stories do in 300. This beautiful meditation on loss and belonging evokes the Australian tyranny of distance and is a fine example what the short story form can achieve. The Australian Perfect fodder for a Sunday arvo on the couch, these charming, funny touching short stories from well known Australian female writers are what winter was made for Cosmopolitan A wonderful selection the strength of the collection is that it doesn't define the Australian woman writer as a particular situation and includes writers from various social and cultural backgrounds Artshub

Culinary Discourses in Asian-Australian Writing Astrid Schwegler-Castañer, 2025-03-24 Besides nourishing us food can be used metaphorically to help us understand the complex and abstract concepts through which we negotiate our position in the world we talk about digesting ideas ruminating on a problem or swallowing an insult Building on this premise the book offers a detailed analysis of culinary imagery in twenty first century works from Asian Australian authors like Hsu Ming Teo Alice Pung Simone Lazaroo and Shaun Tan Food is used to embody the abstractions that underlie racial inequalities and conflicts questioning the superficiality of Australia's official multiculturalism and its reproduction of racial and cultural privileges At the same time the analysis highlights the power of these fictional narratives to envision alternative worlds in the hope of gaining common ground for human understanding and solidarity took a bird's eye view of any sprawling Australian regional town you'd see ordinary Australians living on their ordinary suburban blocks. Get closer. Peer through a window. In the town of Mount Barker you might see Nathan Hearle obsessively recording the bark of a neighbourhood dog or the Wheeler family sitting down for a meal and trying to come to terms with a shocking discovery. You might hear tales of fathers and their wayward sons, of widows who can't forgive themselves of children longed for and lost, of thwarted lust and of pure love. Within the shadows is an unspeakable crime. Rebekah Clarkson has created a compelling, slow-burning portrait of a town in the midst of major change as it makes the painful transformation from rural idyll to aspirational suburbia. What looked like redemption is now profound loss. What seemed spiteful can now be forgiven. A novel in stories, Barking Dogs is an assured debut from one of Australia's most respected storytellers.

Architectures of Occupation in the Australian Short Story Patrick West, 2024-05-28 Patrick West's Architectures of Occupation in the Australian Short Story cultivates the potential for literary representations of architectural space to contribute to the development of a contemporary politics of Australian post-colonialism. West argues that the predominance of tropes of place within cultural and critical expressions of Australian post-colonialism should be re-balanced through attention to spatial strategies of anti-colonial power. To elaborate the raw material of such strategies, West develops interdisciplinary close readings of keynote stories within three female-authored pan-twentieth-century Australian short story collections: Bush Studies by Barbara Baynton (1902), Kiss on the Lips and Other Stories by Katharine Susannah Prichard (1932), and White Turtle: A Collection of Short Stories by Merlinda Bobis (1999). The capacity of the short story form to prompt creative and politically germinal engagements with species of space associated with architecture and buildings is underscored. Relatedly, West argues that the recent resurgence of binary thought on local, national, and international scales occasions an approach to the short story collections shaped by binary relationships like a dichotomy of inside and outside. Concluding his argument, West connects the literary and architectural critiques of the story collections to the wicked problem linked to ongoing colonial violences of improving Australian Indigenous housing outcomes. Innovative and interdisciplinary, this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Literary, Architectural, and Postcolonial Studies. Digital Journalism, Drones, and Automation

Seabirds Crying in the Harbour Dark Catherine Cole, Cathy Cole, 2017 The room rustled as the children looked around. They knew no one had been to the coast but they checked in case for liars for the too dumb to know the difference between the real world and the television for the dreamers. A young boy yearns for a rabbit, a man battles for his father's love, a group of middle-class Australians find themselves in a newly renovated house, and an elderly refugee worries about his daughter's sea voyage. Seabirds Crying in the Harbour Dark is about seeking refuge, about how we define home and what makes us feel safe. The stories in this collection ask a simple question: what does it mean to live with compassion and kindness Cole writes without the guilt that has been so debilitating to our political and intellectual culture She doesn't engage with debates about guilt or blame neither fending them off nor joining the chorus of mea culpa She brings an awareness to attitudes of mind that Australian readers will recognize Drusilla Modjeska The Monthly Subject Fiction Quarterly Essay 66 The Long Goodbye Anna Krien, 2017-06-13 The Great Barrier Reef is dying Extreme weather is becoming all too familiar Yet when it comes to action on climate change division and paralysis rule the land In this vivid urgent essay Anna Krien explores the psychology and politics of a warming world She visits the frontlines of Australia's climate wars the Reef the Galilee and Bowen basins South Australia She investigates the Adani mine with its toxic politics and controversial economics Talking to power workers and scientists lobbyists and activists she considers where climate change is taking us and where effective action is to be found This was Turnbull's moment and the Liberal Party's too Not just the Snowy 2.0 but the whole thing an ailing and dysfunctional grid a complex issue something for the adults to take responsibility for But instead of leadership Australians got politics as usual Cheap shots culture war baiting bad and good ideas lobbed like hot potatoes and lost in the trash talk of low grade politics After the ten day policy spree Turnbull resumed his poker face continuing with his grim role of negotiating with the vipers in his nest Anna Krien The Long Goodbye scrutiny partly because profiles have traditionally been regarded as public relations exercises or as soft journalism. However, chapters in this volume reveal not only that profiling has historically taken many different forms but that the idea of the interview as a contested space has applications beyond the subject of celebrated individuals. The volume looks at the profile's historical beginnings, at the contemporary manufacture of celebrity versus the ordinary, at profiling communities, countries, and movements, at profiling the destitute, at sporting personalities, and finally at profiling and trauma.
