The Book of Genesis Richard N. Hughes, 2000-12-01 Genesis is the first book of the Bible and in many ways offers us the Bible in miniature It is a book of beginnings indeed its original title in the ancient Hebrew was Bere Shith which translates In the beginning which are the first words of the book Parenthetically that is the way many books in the Bible were originally named In both Jewish and Christian circles Genesis is believed to have been written by Moses who also is also believed to be the author of the next four books of the Bible Those five books known as The Pentateuch which means the five are believed to have been written during the forty years when the Jews wandered in the wilderness following the exodus from Egypt It should be pointed out however that Genesis is made up of many stories of a traditional nature which may date back hundreds of years before Moses time It might be more accurate to say that Moses was the compiler of Genesis drawing from oral histories and folk tales and weaving them together into a coherent narrative The work was his but the material was almost certainly traditional Many Biblical scholars although certainly not all believe that there are three specific sources represented in Genesis and the other books of the Pentateuch which range in origin from the tenth to the fifth century BC They are as follows The J strain named for Jahweh Yahweh which is the personal name for God in the Old Testament The J strain is an amalgamation of divine revelation and scientific data The E strain named for Elohim which was one of the early names for God This strain consists mainly of dreams and divine revelations The P strain called the Priestly strain because it deals much more with the specifics of dates details and descriptions explaining providing a bridge as Priests do This can be confusing at times because there are instances when the three strains contradict one another and in some sense each has its own distinctive theology It should also be said that while this theory is widely held it cannot be conclusively proved For all practical purposes it is best to think of Moses as the author understanding that he would have borrowed from a number of different sources in creating the book We should also understand that for a period of more than a thousand years Genesis and the other books of the Pentateuch were subjected to editing and revision Indeed Genesis was not set in its final form the form we read today until about 250 BC when the translation was made into the Greek In your Bible study you will come across the word septuagint sept TOO uh jint which is the name given to that translation because it was done by 72 Jewish scholars who were brought to Egypt by Ptolemy II to translate the five books written by Moses The book of Genesis is important to us because it is the foundation for understanding the rest of the Bible All of the great themes of the Bible are introduced in Genesis and one of the pleasures in studying the book in detail is being able to pick them out when they appear Christians particularly will find all of the theme s of Jesus ministry in this remarkable book which is not surprising because he would have studied Genesis in essentially the same form that we will study it in these lessons

The Book of Genesis Craig A. Evans, Joel N. Lohr, David L. Petersen, 2012-03-20 Written by leading experts in the field The Book of Genesis Composition Reception and Interpretation offers a wide ranging treatment of the main aspects of Genesis study Its twenty nine essays fall under four main sections The first section contains studies of a more general nature including the history of Genesis in critical study Genesis in literary and historical study as well as the function of Genesis in the Pentateuch In the second portion scholars present commentary on or interpretation of specific passages or sections of Genesis as well as essays on its formation genres and themes The third part includes essays on the textual history and reception of Genesis in Judaism Christianity and Islam The final section explores the theologies of the book of Genesis including essays on Genesis and ecology and Genesis in the context of Jewish thought The first chapter of Genesis has nothing to do with the creation of man Helena Petrovna Blavatsky, Charles Johnston, 2024-09-13 Genesis is a purely symbolic and kabbalistic volume It can neither be understood nor appreciated if judged by the mistranslations and misinterpretations of its Christian remodellers The Sevenfold Primordial Evolution of the Puranas appear in the Bible as Six Days of Creation and a seventh day of rest None of these creations has ever occurred on this globe wherever else they may have taken place Esoterically speaking Crocodile or Capricornus is Makaram the Sanskrit name of the tenth sign The shape of a crocodile or crab is the outcome of the stargazer's fertile imagination and nothing more Adam is the symbol of the first terrestrial man or humanity at large The man of clay was the first living being to appear on earth the animal kingdom coming after him And as the Egyptian ram headed god makes man on the potter's wheel so in Genesis do the Elohim fashion him out of the same material The Adept can select any of the countless archetypal forms concealed in Divine Thought Ideal World and by the power of his will gather into its boundaries the matter required to make it visible to our sensible world a miracle to the Christian a fraud for the materialist It is sound that produces colour not the other way around Our earth is densely populated by countless viewless races the elemental evolutionary forces of nature below the mineral kingdom The elemental cannot understand the thought of a person it can only be reached when the exact scale of being to which the elemental belongs is vibrated by sound colour or form By correlating the vibrations of sound colour form number and substance the Adept rules over and commands the elemental forces that underlie the phenomena of nature The evolution of the spiritual falling into the physical from mineral plant and animal up to man takes place only during the First Round At the middle of the Fourth Round when the downward evolution turns upward from physical to spiritual man appears before anything else on earth The vegetation that covered the earth in those days of hoary antiquity belonging to the Third Round was ethereal transparent and so was the first man humanity because he was a shadow image of his progenitors The matter composing the objects we see and touch continually returns to its pre primordial condition of purity and light which no mortal eye can see or bear its radiance
