The Irish Expatriate Novel in Late Capitalist Globalization Joe Cleary, 2021-11-11 This study of contemporary Irish expatriate fiction offers a boldly original world facing rather than nation focused overview of the contemporary Irish novel Chapters examine how Irish narrative deals with the United States in a time of declining global hegemony a rising China and Asia a thwarted and turbulent Global South and a European Union that has decisively reshaped Ireland in the last half century The author argues that in a late capitalist world defined by volatile economic and cultural globalizations the Irish novel is struggling to imagine new ways to narrate the country's relationship to the world capitalist system and to find new place for Irish writing in the world literary system Looking at a rapidly changing Ireland in a rapidly changing international order Joe Cleary offers new readings of novels by Colm Tóibín Anne Enright Joseph O'Neill Deirdre Madden Mary Costello Naoise Dolan Aidan Higgins Colum McCann Ronan Sheehan and Ronan Bennett The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Imperialism and Anti-Imperialism Immanuel Ness, Zak Cope, 2016-04-29 The Palgrave Encyclopedia Imperialism and Anti Imperialism objectively presents the prominent themes epochal events theoretical explanations and historical accounts of imperialism from 1776 to the present It is the most historically and academically comprehensive examination of the subject to date Fragmenting modernism Sara Haslam, 2013-07-19 Fragmenting modernism is about Ford Madox Ford a hero of the modernist literary revolution Ford is a fascinating and fundamental figure of the time not only because as a friend and critic of Ezra Pound and Joseph Conrad editor of the English Review and author of The Good Soldier he shaped the development of literary modernism But as the grandson of Ford Madox Brown and son of a German music critic he also manifested formative links with mainland European culture and the visual arts In Ford there is the chance to explore continuity in artistic life at the turn of the century as well as the more commonly identified pattern of crisis in the time The argument throughout is that modernism possesses more than one face Setting Ford in his cultural and historical context the opening chapter debates the concept of fragmentation in modernism later chapters discuss the notion of the personal narrative and war writing Ford s literary technique is studied comparatively and plot summaries of his major books The Good Soldier and Parade s End are provided as is a brief biography Fragmenting Modernism will be useful for anyone studying the literature of the early twentieth century impressionism or modernism in general terms as well as for those who seek to investigate in detail one of the great polymorphous figures of the time An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence
