Smith,1964 Prepared on behalf of the U S Atomic Energy Commission Law & Criminal Justice Christopher E. Smith,Madhavi Michael McCall,Cynthia Perez McCluskey,2005 Law changes as new developments affect society The dawn of a new century provides a marking point for the evaluation of trends in law and policy This book examines emerging issues that will shape society s rules and legal processes in the twenty first century By identifying developments affecting technology demography and politics the authors evaluate impacts on law and criminal justice Many of the issues discussed including the expanding Latino population new technologies for investigations weapons and executions health crises in prisons DNA testing and the war on terrorism will have profound effects on the fates of individuals drawn into the justice system Geology of the Basin Quadrangle, Jefferson, Lewis and Clark, and Powell Counties, Montana Edward Thompson Ruppel,1963 A descriptive report of an area along the west margin of the Boulder batholith Where Justice and Mercy Meet Vicki Schieber,Trudy D. Conway,David Matzko McCarthy,2013-02-01 Where Justice and Mercy Meet Catholic Opposition to the Death Penalty comprehensively explores the Catholic stance against capital punishment in new and important ways The broad perspective of this book has been shaped in conversation with the Catholic Mobilizing Network to End the Use of the Death Penalty as well as through the witness of family members of murder victims and the spiritual advisors of condemned inmates The book offers the reader new insight into the debates about capital punishment provides revealing and sometimes surprising information about methods of execution and explores national and international trends and movements related to the death penalty It also addresses how the death penalty has been intertwined with racism the high percentage of the mentally disabled on death row and how the death penalty disproportionately affects the poor The foundation for the church's position on the death penalty is illuminated by discussion of the life and death of Jesus Scripture the Mass the Catechism of the Catholic Church and the teachings of Pope John Paul II Written for concerned Catholics and other interested readers the book contains contemporary stories and examples as well as discussion questions to engage groups in exploring complex issues

The Award of Justice; Or, Told in the Rockies: A Pen Picture of the West A. Maynard Barbour, 2019-12-17 In The Award of Justice Or Told in the Rockies A Pen Picture of the West A Maynard Barbour crafts a vivid portrayal of the rugged landscapes and complex social fabric of the American West particularly during the late 19th century This narrative intertwines personal anecdotes with allegorical tales presenting a rich tableau of frontier life marked by both hardship and justice Barbour's literary style characterized by its expressive descriptions and nuanced character development invites readers into the psyche of individuals navigating the challenges and triumphs of Western existence The book stands as a historical document reflecting the zeitgeist of its era while simultaneously examining themes of morality and human resilience against a backdrop of natural beauty and untamed wilderness A Maynard Barbour was a prominent figure in American literature whose own experiences as a traveler and observer of Western culture profoundly informed his writing Raised in an era of rapid expansion and conflicting ideologies Barbour's interest in social justice and equity is palpable throughout his work His deep empathy for the struggles of the people around him including Indigenous communities and settlers crafted a narrative that seeks to elevate the complexity of human experience in the West I highly recommend The Award of Justice to readers passionate about American history and literature Barbour's eloquent storytelling not only captivates but also serves as an essential lens through which to understand the intricate dynamics of justice in a developing nation This book is a compelling exploration for both casual readers and scholars of Western literature In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read

Justice and Tourism Tazim Jamal, James Higham, 2021-11-17 Research related to justice and tourism is at an early stage in tourism studies Challenges abound due to the complex scope and scale of tourism and thus the need to transcend disciplinary boundaries to inform a phenomenon that is intricately interwoven with place and people from local to global The contributors to this book have drawn from diverse knowledge domains including but not limited to sociology geography business studies urban planning and architecture anthropology philosophy and management studies to inform their research From case based empirical research to descriptive and theoretical approaches to justice and tourism they tackle critical issues such as social justice and gender discrimination and racism minority and worker rights indigenous cultural and heritage justice including special topics like food sovereignty while post humanistic perspectives that call us to attend to non human others to climate justice and sustainable futures A rich array of principles is woven within and between the chapters The various contributions illustrate the need for continuing collaboration among researchers in the Global North and Global South to enable diverse voices and worldviews to inform the pluralism of justice and tourism as arises in this book The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Sustainable Tourism

The Fairness Instinct L. Sun, 2013-10-15 Combining research from the social sciences hard sciences and the humanities this accessible cross disciplinary book offers fascinating insights into a key component of human nature and society What do the Arab Spring the Robin Hood legend Occupy Wall Street and the American taxpayer reaction to the 182 billion bailout of AIG have in common All are rooted in a deeply ingrained sense of fairness But where does this universal instinct come from This is the driving question at the heart of L Sun's The Fairness Instinct Thinkers from Aristotle to Kant from Augustine to John Rawls and religions from Christianity to Confucianism have offered great insight into the nature and origins of this basic human desire for fairness Based on the most recent scientific discoveries in behavioral genetics neuroscience psychology anthropology economics and evolution Sun argues that the origins of the fairness instinct cannot be found exclusively in the philosophical social and political perspectives to which we so often turn rather they can be traced to something much deeper in our biological makeup Taking as his starting point Frans De Waal's seminal study showing that Capuchin monkeys revolt when they are shortchanged by receiving a less valuable reward than their peers receive for the same task Sun synthesizes a wide range of research to explore the biological roots of the fairness instinct He shows that fairness is much more than a moral value or ideological construct fairness is in our DNA Combining scientific rigor with accessible and reader friendly language to relate fascinating stories of animal and human behavior The Fairness Instinct lays out an evolutionary roadmap for how fairness emerges and thrives under natural selection and how two powerful engines social living and social hierarchy have fueled the evolution of this intricate and potent instinct in all of us Probing into the motives that underlie such phenomena as envy consumerism anti intellectualism revenge revolution terrorism marriage democracy and religion Sun showcases the power of the fairness instinct to make our history shape our society and rule our social lives Confirmation Hearings on Federal Appointments United States.
