like the proverbial blank slate but our memories are like teflon nothing sticks In this beautifully written account of his daughter s first three years Charles Fernyhough combines his vivid observations with a synthesis of developmental theory re creating what that time lost to the memory of adults is like from a child s perspective In A Thousand Days of Wonder Fernyhough a psychologist and novelist attempts to get inside his daughter s head as she acquires all the faculties that make us human including social skills language morality and a sense of self Written with a father s tenderness and a novelist s empathy and style this unique book taps into a parent s wonder at the processes of psychological development
