A wedding ceremony to invite all the socialites to. And finally a baby for him to parade around to show he's really a wholesome down to Earth man. I've tried to remain cynical about it. He's going to make all my dreams come true. So what if it's supposed to be a loveless marriage. Only his tenderness in private has me hooked. The way he kisses me drives me wild. When we make love I lose myself to him. His body feels like it was meant to be on top of mine like we fit together like two puzzle pieces. I can't help but begin to fall for him. I can't tell him or I risk losing everything. And nobody else can find out about our little arrangement or it will destroy his reputation. Still I feel like I have to know how he feels before the marriage before the baby before I give my entire life over to him. Is it still just pretend.
