The Bog The Legend Of Man S Best Friend:

The Bog John Preston Smith, 2014-11-18 In the midst of my land is a thick swampy grove where no human goes It is a haven for snakes root rot mosquitoes burrowing critters and fox On my walks I give it a wide berth In my mind I figure it to be where wild things go to peacefully leave this world I call it the Bog On the day that cries of a wounded animal drew me to the Bog I was no different than you Now I am a changed man I now understand the choices that dogs make yes they make choices and how they were selected to be man s best friend I understand the source of their soul and their place in the hereafter I see them as messengers and guardians I understand the depth of their love as they seek little more than our friendship And I understand their willingness to defend us in death No one has been able to tell this story until now because no one other than me has met Napoleon I challenge you not to open the covers of this book unless you are willing to see your dog in a new light
