N. Broadberry, Kevin H. O'Rourke, 2010 Setting European economic development within a unified comparative and genuinely pan European framework this textbook surveys the transition to modern economic growth since 1700 Leading authors cover the major themes of modern economic history and compare economic development across countries in a clear and comprehensible way Provided by publisher A Wealth of Buildings: Marking the Rhythm of English History Richard Barras, 2016-09-23 This two volume book explores how the great buildings of England bear witness to a thousand years of the nation s history In every age investment in iconic buildings reaches a climax when the prevailing mode of production is operating most effectively surplus wealth is most plentiful and the dominant class rules supreme During such periods of stability and prosperity the demand for new buildings is strong structural and stylistic innovations abound and there is fierce competition to build for lasting fame Each such climax produces a unique vintage of hegemonic buildings that are monuments to the wealth and power of those who ruled their world This second volume presents three case studies of iconic building investment from the eighteenth century to the present day During the eighteenth century the wealth of the great landed estates funded the golden age of country house building by aristocracy and gentry During the nineteenth century the Industrial Revolution unleashed an unprecedented wave of infrastructure investment and civic building by the ascendant capitalist class Since the late twentieth century the power of global financial capital has been symbolized by the relentless rise of city centre office towers A final chapter argues that these different forms of hegemonic building are a physical manifestation of the underlying rhythm of English history An Economic History of Modern Britain ...: The early railway age, 1820-1850 Sir John Harold Clapham, 1926 An Economic History of Regional Industrialization Bas van Leeuwen, Robin C.M. Philips, Erik Buyst, 2020-10-22 This book offers a comprehensive study of regional industrialization in Europe and Asia from the early nineteenth century to the present Using case studies on regional industrialization the book provides insights into similarities and differences in industrialization processes between European Eurasian and Asian countries Important factors include the transition from traditional to modern industrial production industrial policy agglomeration forces market integration and the determinants of industrial location over time The book is an invaluable reference that attempts to bridge the fields of economic history political history economic geography and economics while contributing to the debates on economic divergence between Europe and Asia as well as on the role of economic integration and globalization

The Age of Entrepreneurship Robert Bennett, Harry Smith, Carry van Lieshout, Piero Monteburro, Gill Newton, 2019-06-27 This landmark research volume provides the first detailed history of entrepreneurship in Britain from the nineteenth century to the present Using a remarkable new database of more than nine million entrepreneurs it gives new understanding to the development of Britain as the world's first industrial nation Based on the first long term whole population analysis of British small business it uses novel methods to identify from the 10 yearly population census the two to four million people per year who operated businesses in the period 1851-1911 Using big data analytics it reveals how British businesses evolved over time supplementing the census derived data on individuals with other sources on companies and business histories By comparing to modern data it reveals how the late Victorian period was a golden age for smaller and medium sized business driven by family firms the accelerating participation of women and the increasing use of incorporation as significant vehicles for development A unique resource and citation for future research on entrepreneurship of crucial significance to economic development policies for small business around the world and above all the key entry point for researchers to the database which is deposited at the UK Data Archive this major publication will change our understanding of the scale and economic significance of small businesses in the nineteenth century

The Cambridge Economic History of Modern Britain Roderick Floud, Jane Humphries, Paul A. Johnson, 2014 The Evolution and Determinants of Wealth Inequality in the North Atlantic Anglo-Sphere, 1668-2013 Livio Di Matteo, 2018-05-16 This book focuses on wealth inequality trends in the North Atlantic Anglo sphere countries of Canada the United Kingdom and the United States over the period from 1668 to 2013 a wider perspective than generally used when wealth inequality is discussed This book demonstrates that it is important to put current dimensions of wealth inequality into historical context by looking at performance over the long run rather than simply a few decades Moreover this contribution compiles a substantial amount of data on estimates of wealth inequality and provides a concise overview of trends as well as the drivers of inequality over the long term It serves as a short supplementary text for economics and sociology courses on economic inequality economic history and social change while remaining of interest to scholars and policymakers invested in equality debates of the past and present An Economic History of Modern Britain Sir John Harold Clapham,1926 The Economic History Review ,1946 Broad coverage of themes of economic and social change including the intellectual political and cultural implications of these changes Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd,2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like J rgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies
