Decolonial Politics in European Peripheries Redefining Progressiveness Coloniality and Transition Efforts is a timely contribution to the project of theorizing Europe through decolonial perspectives on the Left as the European and global crisis has prompted new reflections on what it means to sit still at the European peripheries The book explores how the joint scholarship efforts of postcolonial and postsocialist scholars might come up with better grounded and more detailed theoretical and methodological insights into the process of globalization and subsequent peripheralization if framed under a progressive and leftist perspective The authors many from the South East Europe region use a variety of analytical lenses to demonstrate how the nexus of postcolonial postsocialist area studies and progressive developmental political thought could inspire changes in the future which are in dissonance with neoliberal and neoconservative capitalism As the side effects of global capitalism continue to accelerate scholars and activists in the postsocialist periphery are increasingly turning to the concept of decoloniality in the hope that it might offer more options on how to begin to build up their framework This book offers numerous examples of how decolonial theory can be applied to activist work in the fight against austerity and neoliberalization as well as examples of how decolonial critique can be mobilized to contest processes of Europeanization and Euro Atlantic integration This book will intrigue students and scholars of critical social scholarship in general as well as postsocialism and postcolonialism critiques of right populism and the rise of white nationalism in Europe and those studying the regions of South Eastern Europe and Eurasia more generally It will also interest activists organizers decision makers policy analysts and leftists both in the region and internationally Nationalism & Self Determination in the Horn of Africa I.
