The English Crime Play in the Twentieth Century Beatrix Hesse, 2015-08-02 This is the first comprehensive study of the English crime play presenting a survey of 250 plays performed in the London West End between 1900 and 2000 The first part is historically orientated while the second one establishes a tentative poetics of the genre The third part presents an analysis of some 20 plays adapted from detective fiction The English Handbook William Whitla, 2009-12-01 The English Handbook A Guide to Literary Studies is a comprehensive textbook providing essential practical and analytical reading and writing skills for literature students at all levels With advice and information on fundamental methods of literary analysis and research Whitla equips students with the knowledge and tools essential for advanced literary study Includes traditional close reading strategies integrated with newer critical theory ranging from gender and genre to post structuralism and post colonialism with examples from Beowulf to Atwood folk ballads to Fugard and Christopher Marlowe to Conrad's Marlow Draws on a wide range of resources from print to contemporary electronic media Supplies a companion website with chapter summaries charts examples web links and suggestions for further study The B. S. Johnson - Zulfikar Ghose

Correspondence Vanessa Guignery, 2015-04-01 From 1959 to 1973 the writers B S Johnson and Zulfikar Ghose regularly wrote letters to each other in which they discussed their own work and literary preoccupations They exchanged early drafts of poems short stories plays and novels and their correspondence contains detailed comments and extended analyses of these texts as well as illuminating reflections on literature criticism poetics and aesthetics Though much of the correspondence is an extended literary discussion it also contains moments of personal revelation jokes and anecdotes so that the letters with their surprising asides are enjoyable to read even as they inform with their biographical and intellectual content The two authors also frequently refer to the university poetry journals and literary magazines they contributed to or edited and they write about the poetry meetings they attended and the writers they met or read Their involvement in literary groups and their dealings with publishers editors and agents are indicative of the publishing mechanisms of the time This correspondence thus not only provides insight into the work of both B S Johnson and Zulfikar Ghose but also conjures up a comprehensive picture of the London literary world of the 1960s Talking at Cross-purposes Angeliki Tzanne, 2000

Misunderstandings have been examined extensively in studies on cross cultural miscommunication which associate them with participants differing cultural backgrounds and or linguistic knowledge Drawing on a large corpus of misunderstandings from cross and intra cultural encounters this book argues that miscommunication does not relate exclusively to participants background differences or similarities but that its creation and development are tightly interwoven with the dynamic manner in which social encounters unfold Against a backdrop of Pragmatics Conversation Analysis and Goffman's theory of frames and roles the volume discusses a large number of misunderstandings and shows that they are associated with the constant identity and activity shifts as well as with the turn by turn construction of interpretative context in interaction Besides students and researchers of pragmatics conversation analysis and sociolinguistics this book will also appeal to all those interested in the process of making misinterpreting and clarifying meaning in social interaction The Changing Language of Modern English Drama 1945-2005 K. Dorney, 2009-09-29 An account of language and drama between 1945 and 2005 synthesizing linguistic and dramatic knowledge in order to illuminate the ways in which anxieties and attitudes toward language manifest themselves in discourses on and around English theatre of the time and how these anxieties and attitudes reflect back through the theatre of this period
