Driven by God Jae-Eun Park, 2018-10-01 For more than two millennia believers have struggled with the antinomy of God's absolute sovereignty over and man's ultimate responsibility in justification and sanctification Theologians have used some version of the terms active justification and definitive sanctification in an attempt to illuminate this mystery However in the past decade scholars have begun to criticize these concepts saying that they are unsupported in Scripture lead to theological confusion and are of no practical benefit to believers Through the work of theologians from the broader Dutch Reformed tradition especially Herman Bavinck Alexander Comrie Herman Witsius and Abraham Kuyper Jae Eun Park demonstrates that the terms active justification and definitive sanctification are derived from Scripture and serve to clarify not obscure the doctrines of justification and sanctification In addition the book shows that neglect misuse or misunderstanding of the terms have resulted in contemporary criticisms that are unconvincing and unfounded Writings of the aforementioned theologians define and expound four characteristics held in common between active justification and definitive sanctification i e inseparability objectivity and decisiveness Christ centeredness and God's absolute sovereignty concepts of the mentioned theologians All four characteristics of active justification and definitive sanctification emphasize the God driven nature of salvation Jae Eun Park explains how when properly defined and presented the two terms are important theologically bringing clarity to the issue of the perfect balance between God's sovereignty and human responsibility in salvation He also shows how active justification and definitive sanctification offers practical assurance of their perseverance unto glory to true believers and provides pastors with an invaluable tool for exhorting parishioners who may have lapsed into either triumphalism or defeatism

The Heidelberg Catechism : with Explanatory Questions and Answers : as a Study Guide in Home, School and Church H. Scholten,1964* A History of Christian Conversion David W. Kling,2020 In this first in depth and wide ranging history of Christian conversion David Kling examines the dynamic of turning to the Christian faith by individuals families and people groups Global in reach and engaging recent methods and theories in conversion studies the narrative progresses from early Christian beginnings in the Roman world to Christianity s expansion into Europe the Americas China India and Africa Although conversion is often associated with a particular strand of modern Christianity evangelical and a particular type of experience sudden overwhelming when examined over two millennia it emerges as a phenomenon far more complex than any one dimensional profile would suggest     Called to Freedom Brad Littlejohn, 2025-01-15 Christians in the modern West hear a lot about and talk a lot about freedom The word has taken on so many meanings that Christians often fail to realize how much our contemporary ideals of freedom stray from what freedom has meant in Scripture and the Christian tradition Called to Freedom Retrieving Christian Liberty in an Age of License by Bradford Littlejohn seeks to define and disentangle theological moral and political concepts of freedom and provide a deeper understanding of what true Christian freedom is liberation from the bondage of fear and sin Littlejohn builds his argument from the Protestant doctrine of Christian liberty anchored in Martin Luther's Reformation classic The Freedom of a Christian He then looks at conflicts over technology the market and religious liberty as case studies of how a full orbed Christian idea of freedom helps us respond faithfully to these challenges in our spiritual lives our churches and our civic engagement Littlejohn argues that a great source on contemporary social problems and trends towards illiberalism derive from a faulty understanding of human freedom which places individuality and authenticity as the highest good for society Littlejohn argues that the Christian tradition presents a much more compelling vision namely that freedom cannot lead to flourishing for everyone unless it is rightly ordered to God's moral commands and divinely ordained sources of authority in our lives As such he presents a case against modern secularism and charts a vision for what Christian faith actually has to say to our political and social lives     Woman of the House Andrea G. Schwartz, 2012-11-06 In true Titus 2 fashion Andrea Schwartz challenges women to reexamine several fundamental aspects of motherhood in light of Scripture Beginning with a consideration of God's character and concluding with an invigorating charge to faithfulness Andrea connects the dots between God's reality and a mother's duty She draws from the lessons she's learned as a mother of three to encourage younger women to be prudent to love their children and to embrace the sanctifying work of the Spirit in their families
