Surveillance in America Ivan Greenberg,2012-05-31 Surveillance in America provides a historical exploration of FBI surveillance practices and policies since 1920 based on recently declassified FBI files Using the new information available through these documents Ivan Greenberg sheds light on the activities and beliefs of top FBI officials as they develop and implement surveillance practices Paying particular attention to the uses of the media Greenberg provides a thorough reconsideration of the Watergate scandal and the role of W Mark Felt as Deep Throat He exposes new evidence which suggests that Felt led a faction at the FBI that worked together to bring down President Nixon The book concludes with an in depth treatment of surveillance practices since the year 2000 He considers the question of surveillance as harassment and looks at the further erosion of privacy stemming from Obama's counter terror policies which extend those of the Bush Administration's second term. The startling increase in surveillance since the events of September 11th reveal the extent to which America is losing the battle for civil liberties. Remembering 9/11 V. Seidler, 2013-10-25. Remembering 9/11 recalls the afterlife of the tragedy and the shock that led many to ask why do they hate us so much. Engaging with the different voices that attempted to make sense of the trauma. Seidler traces the narratives of fear, loss and vulnerability and the ways in which they evolved into feelings of rage and retribution. Encyclopedia of Trauma Charles R. Figley, 2012-09-17. This timely and authoritative two volume set includes hundreds of signed entries by experts in the field of traumatology exploring traditional subjects as well as emerging ideas as well as providing further resources for study and exploration. Mothers, Infants and Young Children of September 11, 2001 Beatrice Beebe, Phyllis Cohen, K. Mark Sossin, Sara Markese, 2013-09-13. The group of papers presented in this volume represents ten years of involvement of a group of eight core therapists working originally with approximately forty families who suffered the loss of husbands and fathers on September 11, 2001. The project focuses on the families of women who were pregnant and widowed in the disaster or of women who were widowed with an infant born in the previous year. This book maps the support and services provided without cost to the families by the primary prevention project the September 11, 2001 Mothers, Infants and Young Children Project organised by a highly trained group of therapists specialising in adult-child, mother-infant and family treatment as well as in nonverbal communication. The demands of the crisis led these therapists to expand on their psychoanalytic training, fostering new approaches to meeting the needs of these families. They sought out these families offering support groups for mothers and their infants and young children in the mothers' own neighbourhoods. They also brought the families to mother-child videotaped play sessions at the New York State Psychiatric Institute at Columbia University followed by video feedback and consultation sessions. In 2011, marking the 10th anniversary of the World Trade Center tragedy, the Project continues to provide services without cost for these mothers who lost their husbands for their infants who are now approximately ten years old and for the siblings of these children. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Infant Child and Adolescent Psychotherapy. Shared Trauma, Shared Resilience During a Pandemic Carol Tosone, 2020-12-12. This contributed volume reflects on the collective wisdom and ongoing efforts of the social work profession that has been in the forefront of the global pandemic of COVID-19. The contributors are seasoned social work academics, practitioners, administrators and researchers. Working on the frontlines with patients and families, these social workers have garnered experiences and insights and also have developed innovative ways to mitigate the impact of the coronavirus on the psychosocial well-being of their clients and themselves. The 36 reflections, experiences and insights in this curated collection address the behavioral, mental health, socioeconomic and other repercussions of the coronavirus pandemic that have impacted their client base, most of whom are vulnerable populations. Repurposed, Reassigned, Redeployed: Safety Planning

The Public and Private Management of Grief Caroline Pearce, 2019-05-09 Through a critical analysis of theory policy and practice The Public and Private Management of Grief looks at how recovery is the prevailing discourse that measures and frames how people grieve and considers what happens when people fail to recover Pearce draws on in depth interviews with bereaved people and a range of bereavement professionals to contemplate how failures to recover are socially perceived and acted upon Grounded in Foucauldian theory this book problematises the notion of recovery and instead argues for the acknowledgment of the experience of non recovery highlighting how recovery is a socially and historically constructed notion linked to the individualised vision of health and happiness promoted by neo liberal governmentality This book will be of interest to students and scholars across sociology anthropology social work and psychology with a focus on death dying and bereavement grief studies health and social care as well as counsellors clinical psychologists and social workers our approach to loss from the Gettysburg Address through 9 11 She examines how the American version of grief has spread to the rest of the world and contrasts it with the interpretations of other cultures like the Chinese who focus more on their bond with the deceased than on the emotional impact of bereavement Konigsberg also offers a close look at K bler Ross herself who she borrowed from to come up with her theory and how she went from being a pioneering psychiatrist to a New Age healer who sought the guidance of two spirits named Salem and Pedro and declared that death did not exist Deeply researched and provocative The Truth About Grief draws on history culture and science to upend our country s most entrenched beliefs about its most common experience

Trans-generational Trauma and the Other Sue Grand, Jill Salberg, 2016-12-19 Often our trans generational legacies are stories of us and them that never reach their terminus We carry fixed narratives and the ghosts of our perpetrators and of our victims We long to be subjects in our own history but keep reconstituting the Other as an object in their own history Trans generational Trauma and the Other argues that healing requires us to engage with the Other who carries a corresponding pre history Without this dialogue alienated ghosts can become persecutory objects in psyche politics and culture This volume examines the violent loyalties of the past the barriers to dialogue with our Other and complicates the inter subjectivity of Big History Identifying our inherited narratives and relinquishing splitting these authors ask how we can re cast our Other and move beyond dysfunctional repetitions in our individual lives and in society Featuring rich clinical material Trans generational Trauma and the Other provides an invaluable guide to expanding the application of trans generational transmission in psychoanalysis It will appeal to psychoanalysts psychoanalytic psychotherapists and trauma experts
