The Strongest Link Anna Di Lellio, Garentina Kraja, 2025-06-12 From February 1998 until June 1999 a war between the forces of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia and the separatist Kosovo Liberation Army ravaged Kosovo The counterinsurgency quickly turned into a state led campaign of ethnic cleansing that resulted in the killing deportation and rape of thousands of Albanian civilians While it is estimated that over 20 000 women were victims of sexual violence during the war for nearly two decades after its end few survivors have come forward to publicly discuss what they endured In The Strongest Link Anna Di Lellio and Garentina Kraja aim to break that silence by presenting an oral history of women who survived weaponized rape during the Kosovo War In their own voices twenty women describe the war's terror as well as the nightmares that still haunt them today Through these narratives readers are given a glimpse into what it's like to be a woman whose life has been altered and undone by a violent regime war and patriarchal rules We see how these women suffered but also how they exhibited immense bravery and an unflagging dedication to their families and communities Di Lellio and Kraja contextualize these narratives within a history of state repression ethnic cleansing and lack of justice By weaving these women's stories together and placing them within a chronological storyline these stories can be read as one might listen to a choir Each woman's unique voice and story can be heard but their power lies in a shared song a story of courage and strength
